

ely bound in cloth,
h Illustrations by
PIFFARD, 3/6

HRIGHT.

PH HOCKING,

l Men are Liars,"
ifax," &c.

This volume proves
at Mr. Hocking has
the historical roman-
t' is, in its way,
structed, as well
all of incident as
come from the pen
e or Mr. Stanley

"We read Mr.
itting; not because
or the task, but sim-
compelled us. . . .
a as each chapter
yet cannot stop
is unflagging. . . .
Hocking upon his
advance upon any-
We prophesy a big
right."

ely bound in cloth,
h Illustrations by
T SPEED, 3/6

LEY DIE?

PH HOCKING.

rticle—Novels and
able stories, quite
n, related in vigorous
n exciting incident,
riched with local
our attention in
art to finish."

ees says: "Two of the year."
ays: "An engaging
ance. The reader
n with a sigh, and
e more of these nds, for Mr. Joseph
e of narrative does

"There is nothing
de siècle in Mr.
out a bright, hopeful
ay say, of goodness;
treating love, with
e ties of home life."