

9. They must use great care in the handling of Baggage, and all damage occasioned by rough or careless usage will be charged against the offender.

10. They must carefully compare parcels received with the Way-bills, and note any discrepancy on face of Way-bill.

11. They must keep an exact record of all Checks issued and received each day in the book provided for the purpose.

