

choir having sung Atwood's Veni Creator Spiritus, the Bishops came forward, and each placing a hand on the head of the Bishop-elect, the Bishop of Ontario said :—

“Receive the Holy Ghost, for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands ; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. And remember that thou stir up the Grace of God, which is given thee by the imposition of our hands ; for God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and love and soberness.”

The Bishop of Ontario then presented him with a copy of the Bible, saying :—

“Give heed unto reading, exhortation and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men. Take heed unto thyself and to doctrine, and be diligent in doing them, for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf ; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcast, seek the remiss ; so minister discipline that you forget not mercy ; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear you may receive the never-failing crown of glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

During the offertory, which was devoted to the Algoma and Northwest missions, the choir rendered
