IRON FINGER RINGS
Number Addressed to German Sympathizers Intercepted at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, April 2.—The postal authorities here have held up a number of iron finger rings addressed to German sympathizers in Canada, and at the same time have unearthed a peculiar scheme to assist the "fatherland." The plan is being carried out by certain German newspapers in the United States. People are asked to send in their gold rings, which are sold to be forwarded to Germany, ostensibly to assist the Red Cross Fund, but it is believed to help swell the Kaiser's gold reserves. In return for the gold ring the donor is sent an iron band to be worn as a mark of devotion to his country. The rings are inscribed in German: "To the Old Fatherland, my faith is proved, I give in time of stress gold for this iron." The scheme is understood to have been worked extensively in the United States.

French Flying Squadron In Daring Aerial Raid
Thirty-three Bombs Dropped on German Barracks, Aeroplane Hangars and Railway Station at Vigneulles, Many Projectiles Hitting Targets.
PARIS, April 2.—(11.47 p.m.)—The following official communication was issued tonight:
"Our flying squadron dropped thirty-three bombs on the barracks, aeroplane hangars and railway station at Vigneulles, in Woivre. A great number of the projectiles fell on their targets. The aviators were subjected to a heavy fire at close range. Three of them returned with large holes in the wings of their machines, and the canvas of other machines pierced by shrapnel bullets. None of the aviators was hit. All the machines returned to our lines.
"AT 7 o'clock this morning, east of Soissons, a German aviator was shot down inside our lines. This is the third aviator to be brought down in 24 hours."

Keep Up the Fighting Machine
We are now in the ninth month of the great war, and we are beginning to realize what a stupendous undertaking it is to keep a country as remotely situated from the centre of the strife as Canada. We are in it for all that we are worth, and we would not be otherwise if we could. It is our duty to be in it.
We were not bred to war, like the nations of Europe, and to the task of preparing for war and taking part in it. We had to flounder in at the beginning, and we made mistakes in getting our first contingent to the front. We had no real organization at the start; we had to make one as best we could; we had to enlist men, make camps, drill, buy clothing, boots, supplies, ammunition, arms, harness, artillery; arrange for transport, for field service, rifle training, a thousand things in a rush kind of a way, and by groping. We spent our money freely at the start, without getting efficiency all along the line. We may have been victimized in cases by contractors, by incompetence in the militia department at points, by inexperience.
We were absolutely raw at the game, and we got a raw deal in places. Those who dealt unfairly with us will have to take the consequences now or later on. We must repudiate any unworthy acts done, by no matter whom.
But we must keep on the work—there must be no let-up. We must keep on in the fighting line after bitter experience in many ways, but our boys are now there and they will give a good account of themselves.
We have done much better with the second contingent that is now getting into shape, and that will soon be on the way to the battlefields of Europe. Our fighting organization, our fighting machine, is getting into shape. There are scandals and others may follow, but we have also a fighting column at the front and we are supporting it, and that is the main thing for the moment. The government, the militia department, backed by the parliament, is now doing much better work, because they are learning how. There is no great corruption at the centre, the corruption is ever present in war.
It is easy to find fault, to criticize, to make scandal and misstatements, and this must be done; but we must carry on the war and keep up our nose and matter what happens in the meantime.
Members of parliament, officials, contractors, any one who does or did wrong must be disciplined, and will be disciplined. But the supreme concern just now is to get the contingents in the best possible shape for the struggle that is ahead of them and us. By the bitterness of our experience we have to learn how to do better. We will come out right and so will the empire. But the fighting machine must be better and at the same time improve our methods. And let the government say in the plainest way that any and every wrong done the country will find a fit punishment.

DRIVEN BY GRIEF TO END HIS LIFE
MONTREAL, April 2.—Martin Baker, secretary-treasurer of the Township of Dunham, Missisquoi County, and chairman of the local school commission, died yesterday morning from a gunshot wound in his head, self-inflicted while temporarily insane according to the verdict at the inquest. Despondency over the death of his father was given as the cause.

POPULACE OF PEREMYSL ALSO EXPERIENCED GREAT SHORTAGE OF FOOD.
OFFICERS WELL FED
Cats Sold at Two Dollars and Dogs at Five Dollars for Food.

LONDON, April 2, 2.59 a.m.—The common soldier and the populace were the only sufferers from starvation in Peremysl; the officers had abundant food, wine and cigars to the last, according to The Times Peremysl correspondent. The correspondent declares that the available supplies were not economically expended, and that moreover the fortress was three times over-garrisoned.
"By the last day," says the correspondent, "cats sold for two dollars each and dogs for $5 for food purposes, as there was no more horseflesh left, except that of the officers' thoroughbreds which were not killed until just before the Russians entered the city. One of the most pathetic sights of the Russian army, according to Riesenoff, was to see the famished Austrian soldiers gathered around the body of an officer's horse in the street tearing out chunks of flesh which they ate raw."

GERMANS COMPELLED TO FALL BACK FROM NIEMEN IN HASTY RETREAT WITH HEAVY LOSSES—MORE HEIGHTS CARRIED BY STORM IN CARPATHIANS—AUSTRIAN EXPEDITION TO BESSARABIA CUT OFF AND SURVIVORS OF SEVERAL BATTALIONS CAPTURED.
LONDON, April 2, 10.05 p.m.—The Russians are now on the offensive along the whole of their front, from the Baltic Sea to the Rumanian border and in the Caucasus, and according to a Stockholm despatch they have concentrated an enormous number of soldiers on the coast of Finland to prevent any attempt by the Germans to land there.
All the Russian advances, according to Petrograd advices, are proceeding with success. The Russian official report issued tonight makes the claim that the Germans in north Poland are being pushed back to the East Prussian border, and that in the Carpathians between the Lupkow and Uszok Passes the Russians have captured still another strongly fortified ridge, overcoming in doing so almost insurmountable difficulties, such as the scaling of steep ice-covered hills and penetrating cleverly arranged barbed wire and timber obstructions.
Success in Uszok Pass.
The Russians have also taken the offensive against the German force in the region of Kozlowka, near the Uszok Pass, which has for so long been launching attacks against the Russian position. In that district a large number of prisoners are reported to have been captured.
The Russians declare they have successfully countered an Austrian raid into Bessarabia, near Chotin. Their reports say that units of the 42nd Honved division of the Austrian army which undertook this diversion were virtually annihilated and that over 2,800 of the survivors were captured.
It is declared that the Turks have now been entirely cleared out of Transcaucasia and that the Russians hold the Turkish Black Sea coast as far as Arkhabe.

SCHEME OF KAISER BROUGHT TO LIGHT
Postal Authorities Have Evidence of Plan to Swell Gold Reserves.

IRON FINGER RINGS
Number Addressed to German Sympathizers Intercepted at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, April 2.—The postal authorities here have held up a number of iron finger rings addressed to German sympathizers in Canada, and at the same time have unearthed a peculiar scheme to assist the "fatherland." The plan is being carried out by certain German newspapers in the United States. People are asked to send in their gold rings, which are sold to be forwarded to Germany, ostensibly to assist the Red Cross Fund, but it is believed to help swell the Kaiser's gold reserves. In return for the gold ring the donor is sent an iron band to be worn as a mark of devotion to his country. The rings are inscribed in German: "To the Old Fatherland, my faith is proved, I give in time of stress gold for this iron." The scheme is understood to have been worked extensively in the United States.
