

The Conference shall have authority to locate any of its members by a majority of three-fourths, provided no person shall be located without one year's notice, or after he has travelled fifteen years; and the Conference shall afford such assistance to any brother so retiring as it may be able and judge expedient.

3. At all times, when the Conference is met, it shall take a majority of those appointed by the District Meetings to attend to constitute a quorum for transacting business.

4. The Conference shall have full power to make rules and regulations for the Church, under the following limitations and restrictions, viz:—

First.—The Conference shall not make, alter, or change our Articles of Religion, nor establish any new standards of doctrine, contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine.

Second.—They shall not change or alter, or make any regulations that will interfere with, or infringe the Articles of Union between this and the British Conference, ratified in the year 1847.

Third.—They shall not revoke or change the General Rules of the United Societies.

Fourth.—They shall not do away with the privileges of our Ministers or Preachers of trial by a committee, and of an appeal; neither shall they do away with the privileges of our Members of trial before the society, or by a committee, and of an appeal.

Fifth.—They shall not appropriate the profits of the Book Room to any purpose other than for the benefit of the travelling Ministers and Preachers, the Superannuated Ministers, their widows and children.

Sixth.—No new rule or regulation, or alteration of any
