LT.-COL. TIDSWELL DIES SUDDENLY AT HAMILTON

Was Commander of the Second Brigade of Canadian Artillery—Funeral Tuesday.

HAMILTON, Oct. 9.—(Special)—Hamilton lost one of its finest and best liked military men yesterday afternoon in the sudden death of Lt.-Col. W. O. Tidswell, commander of the second brigade of the Canadian Artillery.

He died at his home, 188 South James-st., after a few minutes' illness, from heart failure. He complained of feeling ill, and lay down on a sofa. A few moments later he expired.

Col. Tidswell was 60 years of age, and leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter. He had been a military man practically all his life, having done volunteer duty in England when a young man.

He was a man of sterling qualities, a recognized military commander, and a gentleman in every sense of the word. His sudden death caused great surprise, as well as regret.

The deceased had been secretary of the Commercial Club since its organization about four years ago, previous to which he was in the fire insurance business.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at St. John's Anglican church, and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Smith.

Police Magistrate Jells gave an address before the First Methodist Church Brotherhood this morning on "What is Sin." He said a lot of attention had been paid to the reformation of criminals, but little to the causes that led them into sin.

The Strength of the Nation. "Domestic Life" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Rev. C. O. Johnston in Queen-street Methodist Church last night.

Three institutions stand between the nation and overthrow, the home, the school, and the church, said the pastor. "They are purposely put in that order."

SECOND WARD VOTES FOR POLITICAL CIVIC FIGHT

Division Was 43 to 10, But Minority Had Strong Objections to the Proposal For a Convention.

Notwithstanding the apparent enthusiasm with which the suggestion of the Central Conservative Association to elect municipal candidates along political lines was received by the ward organizations, the proposal is not likely to be swallowed whole by all the members of the party.

The movement, which emanated from the Fourth Ward Association, and was adopted by the first ward a few days ago, was also endorsed at a meeting of the second ward in Victoria hall on Saturday night by a vote of 43 against 10.

President Mark Irish was in the chair and had some difficulty in keeping the meeting at order. He read the resolution passed by the central executive, which proposed a convention to be called not later than Nov. 1 each year.

"No more of a machine than we now have," said Mr. Irish, shuddering at the thought. "The doctor was suspicious. He wanted to know what benefit would follow. 'If it is best for the city I am in favor of it. I do not care whether a man is a Grit or Tory, if he is the best man I am prepared to support him.'"

Dr. Noble's Reasons. "The City of Toronto would be better governed," said Dr. John Noble, who was the first to speak.

"If I thought that by adopting this we would not have better government at the city hall, I would not vote for it." The doctor was sure the resolution was not offered to favor the Conservative party, but simply in the interest of the city.

John A. Cooper remarked that there was no demand from the party at large for this move, although he admitted that those who opposed the will of the central executive would be in a hopeless minority.

The lower end of the fourth ward does not rest easy when there is an assiduous Liberal working in that section giving sympathy here, a helping hand there, a smile, a kind word, and at the same time securing a couple of civic appointments right under the noses of the Conservative stalwarts.

Secretary Ed. Randall would swallow the thing as a whole. "It was at the Mulock house, Isabella-street, mistaken, owing to the darkness, and fell down the front steps of her home at 8:30 last night. One rib was fractured. She was taken to Grace hospital.

Dolly: "I'll have prettier teeth than yours when I grow up." Jimmy: "How do you know?" Dolly: "'Cause I chew SPEARMINT all day! Mother does too! She says it's the dentifical confection, 'cause it's good for teeth."

SURRENDERED TO SAVE WIFE AND UNBORN BABE

Posse Was Preparing For Another Volley When Little Girl Came Out Waving White Apron.

WINTER, Wis., Oct. 9.—Just as the armed posse which had been raining shot into the cabin of John Dietz was preparing for another volley late yesterday afternoon, the door of the hunted man's cabin at Cameron Dam opened and a little girl walked out, waving a white apron.

"If papa comes out," she said to Sheriff Mike Madden, "will you promise not to shoot him? He's a good man and he wants to surrender."

The surrender of this man who for six years has stubbornly resisted what he considers injustice, did not come without bloodshed and death. Oscar Harp, a deputy sheriff, was found dead to-night on the side of a hill to the rear of the Dietz home.

With Mont Wiley, Tom Pomeroy and William Rankin, all deputies, Harp tried to crawl to a place of vantage in the lumber piles near the Dietz barn, when a well-directed bullet caught him. The other deputies retreated without trying to rescue their comrade.
