Therefore, if I can show any debilitated man how he may easily supply his weakened nerves, his depleted organism, with this marvelous power. I can then put him in the way of restoring his youth, and of keeping him feeling young and capable to a ripe old age. A thoroughly strong, healthy, magnetic many is the greatest inspiration in the world and his fascinating influence is felt alike by all men and all women who are near him. Nothing but death itself ican conner the relation of strength and vigor.

I cannot here give space to thoroughly describe the method which i recommend in the treatment of lost strength, but will merely say the power which your system about the power which your systems.
