Some Bibles are said to be "illustrated" when they contain only a few meaning-less pictures. But the illustrations in The World's Bible are printed in with the type and accompany the subject illustrated. In addition to these text illustrations there are numerous full-page color plates from the world-famous Tissot collection, making this in all a useful gallery of art of the rarest educational value to everybody. A reader who got it the other day says it is worth its weight in gold. Praises come from all sources and everybody that sees it is pleased with it. Every intelligent persons knows that such is not the case." Thus spoke Rev. Andrew Robertson, D.D., in his sermon at St. James' Square Presbyteriar Church last night on "A Man's a Man!" "A man is a man and not an animal," declared the preacher. "A man is a man in spite of all temptation and environment."

"And so it is written, the first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit," Ist Cor. xv., 45, was the text taken. "Man is a man and not a mere animal, and possesses a conscience which does not belong to any other creature of flesh and blood," said the preacher.
