We want girls who are looking for something more than a "job" --

If you are normally reliable, if you are ambitious and intelligent, you would find the Gossard organization a good place to work. The corset materials are dainty and exquisitely fine, the rooms sunny, airy and cheerful, and the companionship agreeable. More than that, the salaries paid are large and you share up to 10 per cent. in the company's annual profits. The rapid expansion of our Canadian business has created a few additional vacancies. Only girls, however, who can conform to our standard as to character and intelligence, can be accepted.

PROMINENT TRAVELER DIES AT SEAFORTH

Seaforth, June 22 .- One of the best known commercial travelers in Can-ada, W. E. Southgate, sen., died at his home here Saturday morning, aged 69 years, from heart trouble and other complications. He has been a resident of Canada about 50 years, living in Toronto about 35 years after coming from England, and for the past twelve years has made his home here, being engaged in the manufacture of cloth ing, and latterly returning to his former vocation as representative of several of the best-known American and Canadian factories. He was a prominent Mason and Black Knight of the Orange Order, and took an active interest in each of these societies. Being a fluent speaker, his services were often so icited in this connection. He leaves a widow, one son, W. E. jun., who was his co-worker on the road and one daughter, Mrs. R. A. Wilson, New York.

ST. LAWRENCE AND NORTH TORONTO MARKETS,

The attendance was again fairly heavy at both markets Saturday, with prices keeping high on most offerings.

Butter.—Butter was a slow sale, principally because the bulk of the opening prices asked were too high for the way dairy butter has been selling in the stores the past few weeks, a good many still asking 50c per lb., which soon declined to 48c per lb., and then to 48c per lb., some closing at 42c and 40c per lb., the bulk selling at 45c per lb.

Eggs.—New-laid eggs were firmer, a large quantity selling at 50c per dozen, weakening toward the close of the market and closing at 48c per dozen, the bulk, however, selling at 48c to 50c per dozen, the dozen. The attendance was again fairly heavy
