Hassan Neby will be hanged at eight o'clock this morning. An ap-plication made in his behalf by his counsel, W. A. Henderson, for a re-prieve yesterday to Sir Glenholme Falconbridge, chief justice of Ontario, wa's refused. Similar attempts to se-cure a resplite have been made to the minister of justice, but have failed in their object. their object.

The prisoner will be hanged in the death chamber by Dominion Hangman Ellis for the murder of George H. Tucker of Weston in a railway construction sleeping car on May 19, 1918. Those present will be the jail physician, the turnkey, a spiritual ad-viser, Ellis and several jail attendants. A stolid indifference to his ap-proaching fate has been maintaned by the condemned man ever since his sentence was imposed, altho he has maintained in his broken English and thru an interpreter that he is innocent, never knowing his victim nor having any intention of killing him. Neby is very illiterate, neither being able to read nor write his own language.

Rev. C. M. Carew, assistant pastor of Jarvis Street Baptist Church, has of Jarvis Street Baptist Church, has acted as his spiritual adviser for some time, also Rev. T. T. Shield's has visit-ed him. A brother-in-law of Neby's lives in Toronto, and he has a wife and two children in Albania.

VETERANS tems of Interest to Returned Sol-diers Will Be Printed in This Column If Phoned or Sent In. NEW ORDER-IN-COUNCIL PROVOKES DISCUSSION

"What will be the position of the man with three and a half years' sorvice overseas, in Britain only, who was discharged in Canada on November

9?" asked a veteran yesterday in course of conversation relative to the course of conversation relative to the gratuity provided under the order-in-council which is to be gazetted to-morrow. "You know," he remarked, "a number of us are far over forty, and some of them more than fifty. Are we to be excluded from the benefits of that order? It is impossible to conceive, but that is the way it looks to

A reporter was told of the case of a man with three years' service only in Canada who was discharged in Oc-tober. That man, according to his own representation, had made as much as $4 and $5 an hour while working at his profession, but as soon as he joined the army he received only $2.85 a day, the army he received only $2.85 a day, everything, pay, subsistence and al-lowances, included. This had been' go-ing on for a year. He believed that he was entitled to that part of the gratuity covering those who had seen service only in Canada. But he was denied even this. "My contention," said W. E. Turley, provincial secretary of the G.W.V.A.
