Carnegie Talks With German En peror-Royal Owners Unsuccessful.

KIEL, Germany, June 20 .- Royal personages were unlucky to-day in the special class yaght races. Neither the King of Spain's Morescot, the Crown Prince of Belgium's Elandria, the Crown Prince of Germany's Angela III., or Angela IV., nor Prince Eitel's Elizabeth were among the first ten boats. The winner of the first race, over a 14 1-2 mile course, was the Tilly X, owned by Messrs. Doll-man and Korgmann. Time 2 hours

A fresh breeze was blowing, and there were few excursionists present, as it was raining and the temperature was down in the fortics. There are three more races of this series. The three best German boats will race the three boats to be sent here in August by the Eastern Yacht Club of Marblehead, Mass. Andrew Carnegie met Emperor William to-day and talked with him for
