WHERE TO GET THE BEST VIEW.

WHERE TO GET THE BEST VIEW.

It is hard to say where the spectator can get the best view, or any view at all. The march past will take place at about 3 o'clock on the flats at the east side of the Don, just north of the Isolation Hospital. A splendid view of this will be obtainable from the hills at Riverdale Park which can be reached most couveniently by taking Winchester cars.

Jer. xxx.

Every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused if it be received with the state of the charge of seduction. The complainant is Mary Good, who states that Hindman formerly kept her company. He married another girl a short time ago, and as Mary is about to become a mother she intends to try and make him provide for the child.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM—Mr. S. Ackerman, Commercial Traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for Inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me." ed

Hamburg Strike May Collapse. London, Nov. 25.—According to a despatch from Hamburg to the Central News, work is being carried on upon only 35 vessels out of 214 now in port here. The employers of the dock laborers declare that the strike must necessarily collapse in a short time, as no assistance in the shape of funds for the support of the strikers is being received from outside sources, Bremen and Lubeck officials declare that the strike at those ports is already collapsing.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW. Good Many People Braved the Disagr able Weather to See the Beautiful Exhibit.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather a good many people attended the beautiful show of chryshathemums, orchids, ferns, palms, roses, etc., at the Pavilion yesterday afternoon and evening. The Pavilion is truly a scene of beauty and the addition of the roses yesterday furnished an aroma which was delightful to the nostrils. Amid strains of music from Glionna's orchestra visitors sauntered from one table to another discussing the beautiful products of nature, and once inside the building one forgot all about the storm outside. The banks of ferns and palms, interspersed with chrysanthemums, in the north wing divided the interest with the display in the main building, and showed the good work done in the matter of floriculture by Park Superintendent Chambers, the plants in the annex being from Exhibition Park and the Horticultural Garage dens had been largely drawn upon. While other exhibitors were Manton Bros. of Eglinton; H. Daly, Brampton: Miller & Son, Bracondale; Granger Bros., Deer Park; J. H. Dunlop and Tidy & Son, Toronto, and others. The conservatory south of the Pavilion was affected an additional charm to the general exhibition. The show continues to-day and to-morrow, and Glionna's mond added an additional charm to the general exhibition. The show continues to-day and to-morrow, and Glionna's mond evening.

"McSorley's Twins," a new farce-comedy, will be next week's attraction at the Toronto Opera House. The company is headed by comedians Ferguson and Emerick. In speaking of the piece, a Cincinnati exchange says: 'The dialogue of 'McSorley's Twins' is ingeniously witty, and the action is bright and sparkling. The songs, specialties and dances are introduced in a manuer that does not mar the unfolding of the piot, and the ever-changing scenes of charming originality, present pictures to the eyes long to be remembered. As a scenic production 'McSorley's Twins' is a little more pretentious than the usual run of farce-comedies, and some decidedly unique mechanical effects are also introduced." It was the occasion of the annual banquet of the Balimuto Club, and about 50 members assembled to have an evening's rollicking enjoyment. The company included students of nearly a dozen of Toronto's most noted colleges and universities, and indications went to show that they enjoyed themselves in genuine student fashion. Mr. J. E. Hodgson, B.A., acted as master of ceremonies, and after the sumptuous repast came to an end he called the boys to order and proceeded with the following toast list: "Our Queen and Country," "Our Universities," "The Freshmen," "The Hostess." Singing and speech-making were the order of the evening, and a pleasant evening it was. The chairman and the hostess, Mrs. Lackey, are to be congratulated on the success of the event.

It's a wise move to have your Christmas Engraving done at as early a date as possible.

Owing to the great rush, Engraving done a FEW days before Christmas is sometimes less artistic than that done earlier,

As all goods are now in, you can select your Christ-mas Watches, Silverware and Novelties, and have them engraved and set aside for later delivery.
