GIRLS OF FLORENCE HOLD BIG REUNION AT FAIRVIEW FARM

Girls Present From All Over Western Ontario.

Decidedly interesting in every way was the annual gathering of the Florence Girls at the beautiful "Fairview" farm home of Mrs. Peter Gilispie, at farm home of Mrs. Peter Gilispie, at Botany, which had been chosen for this wonderful event. Long before the dinner hour the guests began to arrive in groups by train and auto, till all that could come were present. Letters framing regrets were read during the day from absent ones. All the guests had keen appetites, and it evidenced by the manner in which the good things began to disappear. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly. Music, song, wit and humor played their part, and the general social conversation bespoke the element of their associations in days gone by. As the afternoon wore away supper was served. e away supper was served Before their departure the members completed all arrangements regarding next year's meeting, and also tendered Mrs. Gilispie a very hearty vote of thanks for her generous hospitality as their heartes. their hostess,

"I would scarcely feature such a dress, Mrs. Chichester. Like you, I always maintain that the well-bred woman never appears conspicuous."
"Well, I am relieved! And now I must examine this lovely gown. The blouse is surely all that I could ask in the way of simplicity, and the skirt isn't at all startling. The girdle is very interesting," Mrs. Chichester said.

"Those pendant ends weighted with tassels are almost like gathered panels," Madame explained. "They break the plain line of the gathered skirt with a graceful bit of drapery." "The tassels are Chinese, are they not?" inquired Mrs. Chichester. "Yes," replied Madame. "The Chinese tassels are very decorative. Their use on lamps and shades has taught us how very lovely they may be," Madame continued. "I like the row of charmeuse buttons down the side of the pantaloon skirt. You see I have its name quite 'pat.' And I also think the row of buttons down the centre back from neck to skirt border is good," Mrs. Chichester observed.

"You see this border is a continua
