MR. FOWLER TESTIFIES IN HIS OWN DEFENCE

gested they should go to Winnipeg and look over the lands, locating such as they desired. It was then that Mr. Fowler and Mr. Pope drew on the members of the syndicate for $200 each.

After several journeys and interviews he said it was finally decided that the syndicate could purchase 200,000 acres of land at $3.50 an acre. An effort was made by Messrs. Fowler and Pope to have the term of purchase extended over ten years but this was unsuccessful. The deal was closed in December and in the following January or February Mr. Fowler received a letter from Mr. Griffin asking for $20,000 on the purchase money, failing which the agreement would be declared void. This matter, at the request of Mr. McNicol, stood over till Sir Thomas Shaughnessy returned to Montreal. Sir Thomas, however, advised the syndicate that they would have to pay the money.

The witness said he had written Mr. Pugsley previous to this to be ready with his money as he understood a Mr. Brown was ready to take up the lands they were after, and pay cash. No answer was received to the letter, then Mr. Fowler said he wired but received no answer. Meanwhile the $20,000 was got together and paid.

When next the witness met Mr. Pugsley, he said he asked him why he did not send any money and that his answer was that the thing was likely to cost more than he could afford and he would have to drop out. The rest of the syndicate then put up the rest of the purchase money, $40,000. After the land had been sold, he had a conversation with Mr. Pugsley in his house and he told him then that he would not lose anything. The witness said, however, all he had in mind was the $200 advanced by the plaintiff.

Later, he said, Mr. Pugsley made a demand for $2,500 as his share of the profits of the sale but the witness told him he was not entitled to anything.

Mr. Wilson then took the witness in hand for cross-examination.

"You can't recall just where you made the first statement to Mr. Pugsley about the syndicate?"

"No."

"That's rather peculiar, isn't it?"

"Oh, I don't know; I've talked to a good many on the subject."

"Did anyone in New Brunswick put up $2,000 of the $20,000 first raised?"

"No, not quite half. All put up some, however, and I notified all the rest."

"Did you have an option on the 200,000 acres in October?"

"No, we never had an option at all."

"Did you not swear that before the royal commission?"

"Yes, but you will find that I afterwards corrected the date to November."

"You told Mr. Pugsley you had an option on the land?"

"Yes, that was my loose way of talking about it."

"You expected the land?"

"Yes, I hoped to get it and called it my option land."

Mr. Fowler went on to state that the price of the land before the syndicate wished to buy it was $3.50 but that as soon as their application was filed Mr. Griffin raised it to $5.

Mr. Wilson—"Did you not write that you had reason to expect generous treatment as to the price of the land and terms of payment?"

"I may have written to that effect."

"You knew that Sir Thomas Shaughnessy was president of the C. P. R. and that his word would be as good as law to the company?"

"Well, I hoped it would have that effect."

Mr. Wilson then pressed Mr. Fowler to give him some information as to how the first $20,000 was raised.

The witness said that three of the members of the syndicate put up most of the money but that the others put up a part and he financed the balance. The next time he saw Mr. Pugsley was in Sussex. In the course of a conversation he assured the plaintiff that he would lose nothing by the transaction, meaning of his $200. Mr. Pugsley afterwards asked him several times to render his account but he never did so.

Mr. Fowler denied that Mr. Parlee was ever his partner or that he had ever authorized him to offer Mr. Pugsley $500 for his interest in the syndicate. He denied ever having told Mr. Pugsley that he expected to get prospector's fees or any other profits for locating the land. He went on to say that he never had had any difficulty about getting people to buy shares in the syndicate. He did not ask many people because he considered it a special favor to allow them to buy.

This finished the evidence and the court adjourned till 11 o'clock today, when argument of counsel will be heard.

A Noah's Ark expedition sailed recently from the Tyne to colonize the Kergulen Land in the Indian Ocean. The vessel, the Jeanne d'Arc, with 60 Norwegians, carried a large number of wooden huts, sheep, pigs, poultry, ponies and other animals intended for breeding purposes.

GRAND HOLIDAY BILL.

AMUSEMENTS

A CHRISTMAS NOVELTY AT THE NICKEL TODAY

The finest holiday novelty of recent issue in the world of motion pictures, the Vitagraph Co.'s "Slumberland, or Little Nemo's Christmas Eve Dream," is to be shown to thousands of delighted children in this city before Friday. The pictures will start this afternoon and will be run at every show until 10.30 p.m. It is a fairy-tale pure and simple, but with enough of modern toys and children in it to make it a pure delight. The tiny hero sees wonderful things in the strange land under the North Pole—sees animated toys and finds Santa Claus at home. In a more serious vein The Mohammedan At Home will be shown and a bit of American history, Sheridan's Ride, will be given, while The Deadly Plant is a drama in which botany plays an important part. Miss Edwards and Mr. Cairns have blithesome new songs and the Dramagraph Co. will conclude Ex-Convict No. 999. Today and Thursday mark the last stage of the Kris Kringle Limerick Contest. All coupons must be handed in by Thursday night.

JERE McAULIFFE CO. DRAWS LARGE HOUSE

In spite of the Christmas shopping last night, Jere McAuliffe's second performance of Five Thousand Dollars Reward, was well received by a large and enthusiastic audience in the Opera House. Jere was at his best, with a lot of new songs which pleased all. His bit of "Rube" acting was much enjoyed. All the parts were well sustained and the play was well put on. The Hub Comedy team presented a new programme that delighted all. They are fine singers and their work is refreshing. The entire vaudeville bill is entertaining.

There will be a matinee this afternoon, when the Tramp Detective will be presented. This is a play suited to ladies and children as well as men. The play for tonight is the exciting melo-drama, Why He Divorced Her.

According to a decision of the inspector-general of the American army, neither officers nor enlisted men will wear gloves hereafter when equipped for field service. Enlisted men will also dispense with the use of white collars when doing field duty. Officers will be allowed to wear a white collar, with the service uniform when in garrison.

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent), and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
