BURNS AND MOIR TONIGHT

The Canadian Favorite in Betting 5 to 4.

London, Nov. 28.—Memories of the earlier days, when the National Sporting Club was the acknowledged home of professional boxing, have been revived by the prospect of a great fight on Dec. 2, when Tommy Burns, of America, and "Gentle" Jim Moir, of England, will meet in that historic building for the heavyweight championship of the world.

This forthcoming contest is creating greater interest than any since the days in which Moir, a greater weight, reach and height, and the experience that he has gained in many fights at the National Sporting Club, will be sufficient to overcome Burns' superior tactics and bring the championship back to England after thirty-seven years.

In spite of this feeling, however, Burns remains a favorite in the betting at odds of 5 to 4, and with the expected influx of American money before the fighters reach the ring, Burns' backers probably will have to place greater odds to get their money down.

This want of confidence on the part of the betters on the English champion is due to Burns' record in America, and the fact that he is much the faster fighter. Moir is considered an even even for an English boxer. The trainers have been working to win him up, but it is doubtful whether the Englishman will develop enough speed to reach the more active American with his heavy hitting. It is on this hitting that Moir has depended to win before, but a man of Burns' class—the American must deliver some hard hits before Burns can be expected to beat him down. Moir, who has the reputation of being able to take a lot of punishment, both sides did much earnest training up to Wednesday last, since which time they have both satisfied themselves with road work.

Moir will enter the ring at about 180 pounds, which is at least ten pounds more than Burns will turn the scales at. The Englishman has also the advantage of height, being two and a half inches taller than the American opponent. Furthermore, he has a considerably longer reach. On the other hand, Burns is known to have a good left leg to enable him to rush in and get away, and besides he is far more scientific and "uses his head" more than does his opponent.

After some difficulty Eugene Corri, a member of the stock exchange, who knows the game well, has been chosen referee.

HOCKEY

HALIFAX PREPARING.

Halifax is talking hockey. According to the Echo the Osements will be better off than the Wanderers as far as the available men of last year's team are concerned. Speaking of the N. S. teams outside of Halifax, the Echo says: Gloucester is after Murray and Carrie of Amherst. New Glasgow is expected to be weaker this winter than it was last on account of the loss of senior players.

BASE BALL

McGRAW WANTS FRED TENNEY FOR FIRST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Manager McGraw has his lines pretty well laid out for next season, and he is at present planning to secure Fred Tenney for first base. It has been known for some time that McGraw has been slated for a trade while, despite all the talk about the province of young Merkle, McGraw wants a thoroughly seasoned man for the first station. And that man McGraw believes is Tenney more than any other available player.

Many here, however, regard it as extremely doubtful whether the Boston club would consent to such a trade, certainly not unless the Giants offered considerably more than McGraw. Fans feel there is a fair better chance of Tenney eventually coming to New York on a three-cornered deal than that McGraw can put through any straight trade with Boston.

McHALE OF CALIFORNIA WITH BOSTON AMERICANS.

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—Treasure Hugh McHale, of the Boston American League baseball team, received a telegram from President John I. Taylor announcing that he had signed John B. McHale, the outfielder who has been playing with the outlaws team of Stockton, Cal., all season. McHale was the property of the Portland Ore. club, but evidently whatever differences there were between him and the club have been satisfactorily settled.

Fans on the Pacific coast believe that McHale is a wonder. He will be tried out on the spring trip of the Boston club to Little Rock.

MORIARTY QUITS OUTLAWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—George Moriarty, the third baseman of the Highlanders, who has been playing with the Rockton club of the outlaws California League, has finally heartened to the communications sent him and severed his connection with the organization. He played several games with the outlaws after he received the notice from the national commission ordering him to stop playing, but quit Friday.

ALLAN LIVER TUNISIAN Sailed Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock for Liverpool via Halifax.

"MIDDIES" DOWN CADETS

The Naval Men Never in Danger and Score 6 to 0.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The Naval Academy today defeated its "land-lubber" twin, the Military Academy, in their annual football contest on Franklin Field, by the score of 6 to 0, before a brilliant and representative assemblage of nearly 30,000 persons. Though the score looks close, the West Point team never seriously threatened Annapolis' goal, for the middie-men played all around their opponents at nearly every stage of the contest. The result was a great surprise to the army contingent, for, with a heavier team, more experience and a better season's record than the naval cadet team, the cadets from up the Hudson, it was thought, were sure of victory. But after the first few scrimmages it was seen that Annapolis was very strong, and the way in which the middie-men went through the cadets' line and raced around their ends took the army boys off their feet. The good soldiers they thought the sailors had, but it was no use, for it was the navy's day.

THE TURF

B., has bought a new two-year-old, by Alfordley (3) 2:15 on half mile track; dam by Edgemoor, 2:12 3/8, second dam Carrie B., 2:18 1/4, by Henry B. Patchen, 183; third dam, the famous Emeline, dam of eight in the list including Whistler, Gould, 2:19. This colt is a pacer, and promises to make the three year olds shake the dust off themselves next summer. Mr. Gallagher will also campaign the unbroken grey mare Marguerite (2:32 3/4), and will also have her half-brother by Baron Duncan, by Baron Wilkes."

Todd Sold for $30,000.

New York, Nov. 29.—No sign of a currency advance or a horseless age were visible yesterday at the Fast-Tipton sale of trotters in Madison, N. Y. The highest price paid for a trotter at auction in New York for a decade or more, and the highest price for a day for 117 horses sold were $11,500, the largest total and the highest average—$1,250—ever obtained by the Fast-Tipton Company.

SERVICES IN TRINITY

The services in Trinity church yesterday were all of a special nature. At 8 o'clock a. m. there was a corporate communion service for the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and many attended.

At the 11 o'clock service Bishop Richardson confirmed a class of fifty-five, of whom twenty-three were males. Holy communion was celebrated afterwards, and 100 communicated. The bishop was assisted by Rev. R. A. Armstrong, Rev. W. B. Stewart, Rev. R. Mathers and Rev. Mr. Smith.

His lordship in the course of two eloquent addresses dwelt on the duties of those newly confirmed and of their attitude towards one another, towards the church and towards their God.

At the evening service the pastor, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, preached an excellent sermon.

DR. HUTCHINSON IN CITY PULPITS

Acadia's President Preached in German Street and Main Street Baptist Churches Yesterday.

The Christian education as the best preparation for the struggles of life was the theme of Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, president of Acadia University, in German street Baptist church yesterday morning. The sermon was a very able one and was listened to by a large congregation. Dr. Hutchinson preached in the Main street church in the evening.

His text in the morning was from Ecclesiastes X-10: "If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength." The preacher first spoke of the application of the text to the mechanical world and how necessary it was for the workman that his tools have a keen cutting edge in order that his work must be best preserved, and that his strength might be preserved.

The same was also true in business life. A man might succeed without an education, by force of great natural talent, but he would have many difficulties to overcome, and many mistakes would have to be corrected. These he would not have made if his mind had had the keen edge which education imparts.

The text then, Dr. Hutchinson went on, was a plea for education. It was not essential to success that a man have a college education. Many had risen to great eminence without it, but it was of incalculable benefit. The very essence of college education was the development of individual character and this was best accomplished in the smaller institutions, and the trend of modern university methods was now towards the formation of smaller groups of students, enabling each to come into more direct contact with the teacher.

In Acadia, he said, this condition was largely met. The aim of that institution was not only to give each student the best possible education, but to bring him in contact with the best ideals in men and women, in philosophy and books, and in character. To accomplish this end, while Plato and Shakespeare were studied, the Book of Books, God's word was set before all others and each student was taught to look upon Jesus Christ as the highest possible ideal of character.

This was the reason, the preacher said, in conclusion, why Acadia students had succeeded so well in all their undertakings. There was a wonderful picture in one of Sir Walter Scott's novels, The Fair Maid of Perth, depicting a contest in swordsmanship between King Richard and Saladin. The great crusading monarch's weapon was a huge two-handed sword, highly polished and keen. The scimitar of the moorland, on the other hand, was a slender sword, and to all outward appearances the match was very unequal. King Richard chose an iron mace which he placed on a block of wood and, leaving up his weapon with all the force of great muscular strength, brought it down and the mace fell in two pieces. They looked at the edge of the sword and found that it was not even tarnished.

That Saladin took up a light gooseneck staff and with one stroke cut it in two, and with one stroke cut it in two, and with one stroke cut it in two.

Just in the same way, said the preacher, while a common student, or a college student, might enable one to overcome the tangible difficulties of life, all need education, the spiritual education which Christ alone can impart to overcome the light coils of doubt which were infinitely more deadly in their effect.

The sermon was tendered by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson tonight in German street church.

The Bee Eater

A BIRD OF BEAUTY.

The beautiful bird known as the bee-eater is of gorgeous plumage, the predominant color of its feathers being brilliant green, though a rich red-brown, buff, and black also enter into the coloring, making an artistic combination most attractive to the eye.

The female bee-eater makes for her nest a hole in a bank, or digs a narrow tunnel into level earth to the astonishing depth of 8 or 10 feet. This tunnel-nest shows much ingenuity in construction. The number of the season's lay ranges from four to six eggs, and these are deposited in the bottom of the hole or tunnel which is used for a nest. There is no straw, bark, leaves or feathers to soften the nest, the eggs being laid on the hard earth.

The territory occupied by the bee-eaters ranges from the British Islands to Australia, the African region especially being plentifully supplied with them. The nest the bee-eater are peculiarly formed, the middle and outer toes being webbed together to almost their entire length.

The name "bee-eater" is most appropriate inasmuch as the bird feasts upon bees whenever it gets a chance to do so, and in Spain is a real pest to the bee-keepers for it hovers about the honey-bee hives, catching the luckless insects in great numbers.

New York, Dec. 1.—The Sandy Hook life-saving crew early today took off the captain and crew of eight of the brig Lady Napier, which went ashore at the Hook, while running in for shelter last night. The brigantine was still fast to night and her load of 300 tons of iron will have to be removed before she can be pulled off. She lies 100 yards west of the hook beacon, is head-on, well up on the beach and resting easily. She has sprung a leak. She was bound from Demerara for St. John (N. B.)

TO MAKE THE BEST REMEDY

Fine Prescription for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble and Is Prepared at Home by Anyone at Small Cost.

A large health publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles receives the greatest praise, viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumbler of water after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and other difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings in just a short while.

A well-known local druggist states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative issues of the kidneys, cleanses these spongelike organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism. Cut this out and hand to some sufferer which would certainly be an act of humanity.

THE ALL-RED LINE

New York, Dec. 1.—Arriving on the steamer Carmania from Queenstown today, was a delegation of distinguished Irishmen who are interested in making Blackrock Bay, Ireland, the eastern terminal of the Atlantic service in the proposed All-Red railway and steamship route. The contemplated system provided for a ship line directly connecting Great Britain and Canada, across the continent of Ireland, and a railway line connecting the two continents.

The delegation is made up of the Most Rev. Dr. Charles Bishop of Sligo, Dr. R. Ambrose, M. P., John Armitage Drake, J. P., Rev. Daniel E. Reilly and Rev. Mr. Sherry. The delegation will lay its case before Premier Laurier at Ottawa.

Speaking of their mission tonight, Dr. Ambrose said: "We maintain, in Ireland, that if we are to pay our share of the subsidy to be given for the All-Red route we should receive some of the benefits. Our proposition is to have Blackrock Bay, Ireland, the eastern port for the Atlantic steamship line of the route to have a railroad built from the bay of Sligo, connecting with the lines already built to Greenmore, on the east coast of Ireland, and place the system from Greenmore to Fleetwood, Scotland, so that the train can be carried across to Scotland and placed on the roads that will take them down into England. Ireland will receive great profit thus from the bay and from the new railroad. The latter will cost $1,000,000."
