

THE TWELFTH SESSION of Queen's College will begin on the first Wednesday of October (6th October), 1852, at which date all Intrants and regular Students in the Faculty of Arts are required to be present.

The Divinity Classes will be opened on the first Wednesday in November.

Candidates for Matriculation as regular Students will undergo an examination before the College Serate in the first three Books of the Aeneid of Virgil, the first three books of Cæsar's Commentaries, Mair's Introduction, the Greek Grammar, and Arithmetic, as far as Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, inclusive.

The only charges are £1 of Matriculation Fee; £2 for each class per Session, to be paid on entrance, and £1 additional in the Natural Philosophy Class for expenses of Apparatus.

Accommodation will be provided for Students as Boarders, the expense to each boarder averaging about thirty-five shillings per month. Students intending to avail themselves of this accommodation, will require to bring their own bedding. The Boarding Establishment will be under the superintendence of the Professors.

Each Student on entering must produce a certificate of Moral and Religious Character from the Minister of the congregation to which he belongs.

A number of Scholarships will be awarded at the commencement of the Session. The Scholarship for Students of the first year will be conferred on those who display the greatest proficiency in the subjects of examination for Matriculation, together with the first book of Euclid. For Students of previous years, the subjects of examination for Scholarships will be the studies of former Sessions.

The Preparatory Department, or College School, will be conducted as usual, under the charge of competent Masters.

The fees in this department are as follows:—
