REV. GORDON DICKIE ACCEPTS THE CALL

Rev. Gordon Dickie, minister of St. Stephen's Presbyterian church for the last ten years, announced yesterday at the special meeting of the Presbytery of St. John that he would accept the call to St. Andrew's church in St. Johns, Newfoundland. Rev. F. W. Thompson, pastor of Calvin church, was appointed moderator of the session in St. Stephen's until the vacancy caused by Rev. Mr. Dickie's resignation is filled.

BRITAINS TERMS FOR SETTLEMENT OF WAR

The attitude of the allies toward peace talk was again indicated by Premier Asquith at the Lord Mayor's banquet in London yesterday. He once more affirmed the intention of the Entente powers to fight as one until the object of the war in securing protection for the weak, the liberties of Europe and the future of the world is assured. They can accept peace only on the condition that the war shall not have been vain.

LOCAL NEWS

The executive of the St. John County Sunday School Association met last evening and arranged for a campaign in the interests of boys' work, to open with a banquet for the superintendents and male teachers next Thursday evening.

A gold-mounted fountain pen and a leather hand bag were presented to Hon. J. G. Forbes and Miss Homer, respectively, in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday evening on the eve of their departure for Trinidad to spend the winter with relatives there.

The observance of the 75th anniversary of Carleton Methodist church was continued last evening in the form of a congregational reunion. Among those present were Mayor Hayes, Rev. Thomas Hicks and Rev. Gilbert Earle. Those taking part in the programme were: Mrs. E. A. Westmorland, Mrs. Murray Long, Miss Julia Bulvers, Mrs. Fallinger, Miss Marguerite Barrett and Miss Maria Beattie. Enoch Thompson, who has served as recording steward of the church for the last thirty years, was made the recipient of an oak sectional book case.

His Worship Mayor Harry Murphy of the city of Fort William, was in the city yesterday. He expressed great surprise at the conditions of the streets here, believing that St. John should be paved throughout. He is here to interview General Manager Gulefus of the Canadian government railways regarding a site for a pulp mill on property owned by the government at their railway terminus near Fort William.

At a meeting of the St. John Art Club last night in their rooms in Peel street, Mrs. James F. Robertson gave an illustrated lecture on the Alhambra. A valuable water color was presented to the Art Club by Mrs. Charles Palmer. After the unveiling a social hour was enjoyed. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. J. E. Secord.

Attorney-General Baxter addressed a meeting of the members of the Canadian Credit Men's Association in Bond's restaurant last evening. He urged commercial reciprocity between Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to secure uniformity in legal procedure in matters relating to business interests. He also dealt with interprovincial problems in regard to succession duties, assignments, insolvency, etc.

The provincial board of health met in the city last night. Active measures were adopted for the checking of the spread of the dreaded infantile paralysis. Two cases were reported in Charlotte county, with one death, and a fatal case in Queens county. The case must be reported and traveling restrictions are to be imposed.

N. S. Governor III
Lieutenant-Governor MacKeen of Nova Scotia has suffered a stroke of paralysis and his condition is regarded as critical.

CARLETON'S

Merchants who buy on credit cannot offer their goods at such low prices as those who buy for cash. They do not get the pick of the goods sold. We buy for cash direct from the manufacturers and not only get the best goods, but we get cash discounts. This means low prices and high quality goods for our customers. These are the qualities that make our Men's Winter Overcoats worth your attention. They are high quality, good style, and perfectly finished inside and out.

The Difference

"You cannot get new eyes, but you can get new glasses."
If your eyes are worth having, they are worth saving.
Our glasses are reasonable in price. Your sight is priceless.
We duplicate broken lenses with absolute accuracy. We guarantee to give the exact duplicate.
