FOUR CASES ARE IN ONE STREET

Fines This Morning for Violations of the Traffic Regulations.

Several traffic cases were before Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning. C. D. McGuire was fined $10 for speeding at the intersection of Prince Edward street and Haymarket square at 9:25 p. m. on August 19. Policeman Quinn said the accused had been going about fourteen miles an hour around the corner. Mr. McGuire said he might have been going over six but was positive that he had not been going fourteen.

Leslie Laing was charged with operating automobile No. 14927 at an excessive rate of speed and not sounding his horn at the intersection of Prince Edward and Richmond streets at 11:35 p. m. on August 19. Policeman Chisholm said the rate of speed was from thirteen to fifteen miles. Mr. Laing said he was sure he had sounded his horn and did not think his speed excessive.

Col. E. C. Weyman said he was in the car at the time. As to blowing the horn he could not remember that particular case but knew that Mr. Laing did it habitually. The speed was impossible to swear to but in his judgment it was not so fast as stated by the policeman. There had been no congestion of traffic six miles an hour was almost impossible in high gear. A fine of $10 was struck.

Stanley Dwyer was charged with exceeding the speed limit and not sounding his horn at the corner of Prince Edward and Richmond streets on Sunday, August 19. Policeman Chisholm said the rate was from thirteen to fifteen miles an hour. A fine of $10 was imposed.

Harley Brown, on the same charge and for the same same place, was fined a like amount. The speed named by Policeman Chisholm in this case was fourteen miles an hour.

ANDREWS FACES DOUBLE CHARGE

Coachman Troubles at the Depot Get Into the Police Court.

Thomas Andrews was charged this morning with assaulting Harry Holt at the Union depot on Saturday. He pleaded not guilty. D. Knowlton appeared for the defense and W. M. Ryan for Holt. Holt said he had been at the station on Saturday waiting about two hours for the Boston train. On the arrival of the train he had solicited passengers. One had started to go with him and the accused had stepped up and seized the grip of the intended passenger but when the accused found that the passenger wanted to go to an inconvenient place he had passed the grip over to another coachman named Parks. He said the accused had used very bad language to the complainant. The letter had remarked that it was a very funny way to do business whereupon the accused had struck him in the mouth, causing it to bleed. He had then defended himself.

As several other witnesses in the matter were not present the case was postponed until three o'clock this afternoon. The accused was required to put up a deposit of $20 for his appearance.

Andrews also was charged with soliciting passengers inside the designated place at the Union depot on the arrival of the Valley train yesterday. He pleaded guilty. C. N. R. Policeman Young told of the man going inside the rail at the station and picking up a bag.

The magistrate remarked that the maximum fine was $30. For some time the cabmen and taxi drivers had been getting off with a nominal fine and they did not seem to appreciate the fact that they had been let off easily.

Special Officer Ryan of the N. R. said that the accused had caused them considerable trouble and that a report on his case was being made to headquarters. He asked that the maximum penalty be imposed. The magistrate said he would not impose the maximum this time but would fine the accused $10.

Royden Foley had offered the use of the poetry room to try the children to and from the grounds, and J. M. Morrison has offered to donate the refreshments. Other members of the community who have cars will be asked to use them in conveying the children to the picnic grounds.

BOY OVERBOARD AT INDIANTOWN

A drowning accident was narrowly averted last evening during the progress of the St. John Power Boat Club races at Indiantown. The steamer Majestic and D. J. Parry were moored at the wharf with the Majestic on the inside. A boy about nine years of age got from one boat to the other and was making his way back by crawling around the stern of the outside vessel. When he thought he was near enough to make it he jumped and landed in the water. He could swim a little and managed to keep himself afloat. Seeing the boy's plight, Arthur Stone of Brooks street, who was nearby in a motor boat, jumped into the water and hurried to the boy. He succeeded in pulling the lad out of the water but in the process of thinking, though he got a very bad scare.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "I hear there's some society women—some of 'em's true—fer we ain't all built alike—an' sometimes when I've seen what was some alley an' shack—then come out an' seen them there lummies flyin' along as if they own'd the air, I almost felt like throwin' stones—but I guess we got to find out who's who afore we do that. Now they're there women I seen comin' out that alley has a heart—an' it's in the right place. She wasn't jist throwin' a bone to a dog or a dog to what they used to call the 'lower orders'—she was takin' the sunshine into the dark places—an' if she took a spin over a good road afterwards she be my blessin'—yes, sir."
