

WORKING MEN'S SALE AT OAK HALL ENDS TOMORROW

There must be an end to all good things and the working men's sale at Oak Hall, which has certainly been the greatest sale of the year for the working man, comes to a close tomorrow night. For those who have not yet taken advantage of this opportunity there is still ample time if they do not delay. Even though this sale has been a tremendous success there is still plenty of merchandise to choose from because Oak Hall anticipated the demand and keeping in mind their motto "Large volume at minimum profit" they procured sufficient merchandise to make this sale a really big and successful event. A man can readily save many dollars by laying in now a season's supply of underwear, shirts, socks, sweaters, gloves, mitts, and so forth. Tomorrow is the last day so do not delay if you wish to anticipate this big saving opportunity.
