cellor, Lord Haldane, will sail for New York on the S.S. Lusitania on August 23 to attend the American Bar Association's meeting in Montreal. He was overwhelmed with invitations both from the United States and Canada as soon as he announced that he would visit America, but he has declined all with one exception.The day after he arrives in New York he will go up the Hudson in the late J. Pierpont Morgan's yacht Consair and inspect the cadets at West Point.
A special train will take the Lord Chancellor and his party to Montreal, where he will arrive on Sunday morning, August 31. His address to the Bar Association will deal with the part the lawyer plays in international affairs.
The day after his speech he will return to New York, and he will sail for home on the Lusitania. His visit to America will therefore last only five days.NO SERIOUS DIFFICULTY WITH MONEY MARKET IN FALL, SAYS BANK PRESIDENTToronto, Aug. 12.—"I don't expect there'll be any serious difficulty with the money market this fall," said President Wilkie of the Imperial Bank. "The emergency currency authorized by the old bank act, coupled with the reserve circulation which is being provided for in the amended bank act does away entirely, I think, with any danger of a currency famine in Canada this autumn."
"But there won't be easy money, by any means," he continued, "and I personally wouldn't want to see it just yet.
That is one of the troubles with Canada. Money has been too easily obtained and too easily spent. The result has been that we have had a very large difficulty in getting money, perhaps we won't be so free with our spendings for a while."REFORM WAVE IN DRESS STARTED IN CHICAGOChicago, Aug. 12.—With the endorsement of Mrs. Edwin Gould as a starter, the Chicago Women's club is preparing to inaugurate a nation wide movement for dress reform, which will include the practical feature of appealing directly to manufacturers and modistes with a view to having them discourage the pre-valing style of tight and slit skirts, which have largely eliminated petticoats as part of a woman's wearing apparel.
Mrs. Gould, who is here on her way home from a western trip, said:
"I expect to see a revolution among women themselves against the immor-ally slit and the overtight skirt. The dress reform that seems to be due will, I think, carry the women of the country back to normal and conservative modes. I expect to see a return of the reasonably wide skirt, which is now considered out of date. Most of the women of my acquaintance agree with me that it is time to revert to the old lines in dress, with such modifications as good taste may dictate."Members of women's clubs in St.
Paul purpose making appeals to manufacturers, pattern makers, designers and modistes to bring about a modification of current styles. War is to be made particularly on the tight skirt, the slit skirt, the absence of petticoats and the excessively low cut evening gowns.
Chicago women, who believe more in protecting morals than in adhering rigidly to the dress demands of the day, stand ready to advance the movement started in St. Paul.
"I believe that the immorality in dress is due to carrying to extremes a certain style or mode," said Mrs. George Bass, president of the Chicago Women's club.
"I have no doubt that if the Federation of Women's clubs started to agitate a dress reform that would be both modest and becoming to the wearers we could make the movement nationwide."

THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER

"The Chocolate Soldier," which will make a bid for favor in this city, at the Opera House next week cannot be compared to other musical productions, because its individuality sets it far apart and above the musical atrocities with which theatregoers have in the past been cheated. Its story, drawn from Shaw's "Arms and the Man," is in itself a classic of charming, wholesome and penetrating comedy. The wild and merry exploits of "The Chocolate Soldier," among the susceptible women of Bulgaria and the peacocks of the Bulgarian army, the way in which he ridicules their vanities and puts to shame their foibles, form a libretto that will exaltate tired minds and cure the most confirmed hypochondriac."My Hero," "Sympathy," "The Letter Son," and the rest of the exquisite score will be rendered by the special orchestra that travels with the company. The production is remarkable in every detail for its sumptuousness, inasmuch as Mr.
Whitney has stopped at nothing to do justice to the scenic possibilities of the opera. The Whitney Opera Company has been known since its beginning for work of uniform excellence. Prominent in its ranks are Lella Hughes, LottieCollins, Lucille Saunders, Harry Fairleigh, Francis J. Boyle, George Tallman and Bryan Langlois.
