RENEWED OUTBREAK IN CUBA

Santiago, Cuba, July 5.—A force of insurgents late last night attacked a police outpost in the suburbs of this city shooting and killing one policeman. The rebels retired apparently without loss. Government troops were despatched immediately on their trail.

The citizens are much alarmed as the insurgents were supposed to have been completely dispersed and driven off to the woods and the audacious attack on the suburbs was a complete surprise.

Svedes Are Winners

Stockholm, July 5.—The Swedes today captured all three prizes in the miniature rifle individual competition at the Olympic games. Lieutenant Carlberg scored 232 with his twenty-five shots at twenty-five metres, thus winning the gold medal. Lieut. Holst scored 233 and gained the silver medal and Engineer Magnusson made 232 and was awarded the bronze medal and English rifle and was placed fourth.

An Englishman and an Irishman made a bet which could swim the longest. On the day of the race the Irishman came to the shore in a bathing suit and a large sail on his back. The Englishman asked him what he had in the bag.

"Provisions for three days," coolly answered Pat.

"The bet's off," said the Englishman, as he handed Pat the money.

A few days later he heard that Paddy couldn't swim a stroke.—The Bites.

BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY COURTESY TO CANADIANS

Hospitality of British Commons to Be Extended to Members of Overseas Parliaments

London, July 5.—Canadians here learn with great pleasure that the hospitality of the British House of Commons is to be extended to members of overseas parliaments who will now have privileged access to the house by special permit. This will admit them to the members' lobby, the strangers' smoking room and dining room, the terrace and the special gallery.

It is through the action of Earl Grey that this permission has been granted; and the act of courtesy of the speaker has been cordially welcomed by all members of the house.

The function will be held in St. Andrew's rink which will be prettily decorated. The reception will be from half-past eight to half-past nine. A band will be in attendance, and after the reception the floor will be cleared for dancing. Refreshments will be served. Citizens as well as the returning visitors will be expected.

Entries for the big power boat race for the Norton Griffiths trophy must be in the hands of the committee by Monday evening. Invitations have been sent to the clubs in Canada and the United States and a large entry list from outside is expected. Local owners are also making preparations to keep the trophy at home.

While the crowds will not begin to arrive until next week many former New Brunswickers have already been drawn to the city and others will be arriving daily. There is every prospect of the city being packed to the limit of its accommodation during the big week.

MAKING AN IMPRESSION

The old grey-haired doctor was walking along when he espied a crowd. Not an unusual thing, a crowd, but what interested him was the fact that his young medico nephew was at the head of it.

"What on earth are you doing with this crowd, my boy?" he remarked, as he stopped the boy.

The young doctor drew him aside.

"I've hired them to come and sit in my reception room. I expect a rich patient this morning, and I want to make an impression on him," he whispered confidently.

And the old doctor walked away with a tear in his eye as he thought of the days of his youth.

WHAT WAS TIME TO HIM?

At a banquet given by the Lawyers' Association in Chicago, former Judge James E. Parnell declared that the use of questions used by young lawyers when cross-examining their first witnesses reminded him of the answer given to a convict.

"A street laborer," said Judge Parnell, "was digging just outside a state prison. One of the convicts called out from his cell. 'Say, what time is it?'"

"The man kept on digging and did not reply. Finally, after the prisoner had repeated the question two or three times, the laborer looked up at him and remarked: 'What do you care? You aren't going any place.'"

IT WAS A FAKE

A woman inserted an advertisement in the Times this week asking for a young girl to take care of a baby at 15 St. Patrick street. The advertisement was a fake. The people at the house indicated were much annoyed by having a stream of girls call to seek employment. Unfortunately the woman who inserted the advertisement is unknown at the Times office and cannot be traced.

MUSICAL FESTIVALS FOR OLD HOME WEEK IN ST. JOHN

Cambridge City Concert Band to Give Three Nights of Melody—A Concert Band With a Big Reputation Behind It

When Alfred Zeally director of the Cambridge City Band, raises his baton in St. Andrew's Rink on Monday night, St. John people will hear one of the finest concert bands in existence in a programme that will befit the title given to the evening—that of Musical Comedy Night. The selections played will include the overture, medleys, and ensemble numbers of "The Red Rose," "The Rose Maid," "The Winsome Widow," "The Merry-Go-Rounders," "Little Miss Fix-it," "The Pink Lady," and others of the latest successes, interspersed with those of some of the latest Broadway revivals.

The band needs no praise. They come to St. John after a tour of the states during which they have been received with highest acclaim, not only in musical circles, but by the masses as well. Lieutenant Alfred Zeally, the leader, was formerly with Godfrey's British band and this fact is sufficient proof of the sterling quality of the musicians under his baton.
