Daily Hints For the Cook

CHEESE PATTIES.

For cheese patties take a pound of cheese and grate it. Mix the cheese with half a cup of butter and two and a half cups of flour. Sift the dry ingredients together and add a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of red pepper and two eggs well beaten. Roll out the dough on a floured board, cut in fancy shapes and bake until a light brown in a hot oven. These are delicious with half.

GRAHAM MUFFINS.

These muffins would tempt even a poor appetite on a cold morning. They are made of one cup of Graham flour, one cup of white flour, a quarter of a cup of sugar, two teaspoonsful of baking powder, a scant teaspoonful of salt, one cup of milk, one well-beaten egg and one tablespoonful of melted butter. Sift the dry ingredients together, add slowly the milk, eggs and butter. Bake in hot muffin pans twenty-five minutes.

FRANKLIN TEA ROLLS.

Two tablespoons of butter, one teaspoon of salt, two tablespoons of sugar, two cups of milk scalded, one yeast cake dissolved in a quarter cup of lukewarm water, entire wheat flour. Put the butter, sugar and salt into the bread pan; add the hot milk and the yeast mixture. Turn on to a floured board, knead thoroughly and roll out on a third inch thick. Cut with a biscuit cutter, make a deep crease through the centre of each with a knife handle, brush one half with melted butter, fold the other half over on to the buttered half and press the edges together. Place in a buttered pan one inch apart, let rise until light and well puffed and bake in a moderate oven twenty minutes.

A man may sidetrack a lot of temptation by getting himself locked up in jail.

"WHY BE SO THIN"

Thinness is embarrassing, Unhealthy and Not Natural—Formula Now Used Which Adds From One to Three Pounds a Week

Every one ought to have some extra flesh on the bony structure of the body, both for the sake of health and self-esteem.

Most thin people are sensitive to the harsh, unfeeling criticisms which are constantly being hurled at them by the more fortunate well-furnished persons.

Every one pities a thin bony horse, but horses don't know it—while thin people are both pitied and ridiculed. It ought not to be so, but it is.

A well rounded figure, be it man or woman, excites admiration; not only for the figure but for the bright eyes, pink cheeks, red lips, and vigorous carriage, which accompany a well-nourished body.

Strength, health, beauty, and sound judgment, if the body is not sound, cannot be abundant, if the body is not sound, cannot be abundant, if the body is not sound, cannot be abundant.

A strength-giving, health-giving, beauty-giving, judgment-giving, and sound judgment-giving, if the body is not sound, cannot be abundant, if the body is not sound, cannot be abundant.

Get the ingredients and make it at home, and see how very fast you gain in weight.

In a half pint bottle, obtain three ounces of essence of pepsin, three ounces of essence of pancreas, three ounces of essence of cod liver oil, shake and let stand two hours; then add one ounce of tincture of calomel compound (not carbolated). Shake well and take a teaspoonful before meals and one after meals. Also drink plenty of water between meals, and when retiring. Weigh yourself before beginning.

Moderation is one thing that is rare in the extreme.

The children of Emmaus street church gave a pleasant entertainment in the Seamen's Institute Saturday night, under the patronage of Rev. Mr. Tanner. There was a fine programme of songs, duets and recitations. Miss Mabel Law acted as pianist.

Porter, gave the right hand of fellowship to about thirty young people who had been baptised during the past month, and admitted them into membership.
