THE TORNY PRAYER

Two politicians went to pray.
On old Fort Howe at break of day;
One a liberal slow to speak,
The other from a Tory nest.

THE TORNY PRAYER

The story thus began his prayer.
In tones that rent the morning air—
"O Lord! Look down with eyes of pity
On our Dominion, town and city.

THE TORNY PRAYER

"Forgive what wrongs we may have done
The eighteen years our party won,
Confound that dread calamity
That's known as reciprocity.

THE TORNY PRAYER

That's leading on our growing nation
Inch by inch to annexation.
"I thank thee, Lord, I'm not as those Black traitors decked in statesmen's clothes.
Whose dark deception soon or late
Will send us headlong to our fate."

THE TORNY PRAYER

Then from a cloud there came a voice
That made the liberal's heart rejoice,
It summed the Tory's lengthy prayer
And found it only wasted air.

THE TORNY PRAYER

It never even hinted pity,
That Harry Car Wente left the city,
But quoted here the lesson taught—
"The wicked prayer availeth naught."

THE TORNY PRAYER

Reciprocity will bring the wanders
Home to share in the new prosperity that will come to the maritime provinces.

THE TORNY PRAYER

At the Lyric Theatre yesterday, Pinkie & Schieck in their comedy acrobatic tumbling were diverting and very pleasing. It is evident that the act was built for laughing purposes only, and they certainly succeeded in creating much merriment and merriment. The Lyric Theatre, 1111 Main Street, is featuring the picture "The Girl and the Broncho Buster." It shows how a daredevil cowboy wins a girl by riding a wild horse. An industrial film and one that is especially interesting is "How Tungsten Lamps are Made." These three excellent features with "The Girl and the Broncho Buster," make up an attractive picture programme.

THE TORNY PRAYER

Gertrude Hanna scored one of her biggest hits last night singing the success, "Put Your Lovin' Arms Around Me."

THE TORNY PRAYER

It is announced that at the Gen Theatre for the week-end programme a distinct comedy hit is the offering. In fact it is announced as the greatest comedy success offered for many months. It deals with cowboy life in the west, where women are scarce, and where one is pursued by two "punchers" who take extreme measures to win her hand. The picture is an Academy release entitled "Alkali Ike's Auto," and contains a hearty laugh at every turn.

THE TORNY PRAYER

"The Two Fathers" is a Lubin picture showing the truth of the old adage "Blood is thicker than water." The Vitagraph Co. offers an appealing dramatic story, "The Old Folk's Sacrifice," which is the story of how a loving old couple gave up their little all for a wild youth who was ungrateful, unkind, and unscrupulous. Just because they felt that they had a trust to fulfil and would be unhappy should they not. "What's the good of water when you're dry?" is the new song by Jack Morrissey, while the Gen orchestra has some nice pieces. Souvenirs will be given on Saturday to the kiddies.

THE TORNY PRAYER

Give the farmers, the lumbermen and fishermen their turn. Their prosperity means prosperity for the province.

Canada's trade with the United States fifteen years ago was $111,022,513. Last year it had increased to over $400,000,000. Are Canadians less loyal because their trade with that country increased almost four-fold in fifteen years?
