Japan Will Assist The Allies

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 23.—"Japan will assist on the European continent as soon as necessity exists," said Kahachi Abe, Japanese consul of Vancouver, who is visiting in Calgary. "Japan can send several hundred thousand of the very best equipped soldiers to Europe when the time arrives that seems needful. The transportation problem is a great one, but it can be solved. When the time comes Japan will be on the job. What Japan will do to help her allies, when the time comes, will astound the world," he added.

Army of Serb Women Will Enter Fight

Chicago—John R. Palandek, Serbian leader and editor, addressing a number of Serbians declared that an army of 50,000 Serbian women would enter the fight against the German and Austrian forces. "No women in the world are more courageous than the Serbian women," Mr. Palandek said, "and they are not going to sit at home and see their fathers, husbands and brothers driven out of Serbia. Many Serbian women have been killed fighting at the front and I have learned from our native land that it will be but a short time until the army of women soldiers will equal that of the men."

WAR NEWS

The war looks gloomier than it really is; yet the personal appeal of the King to his people brings home to us the seriousness of the situation. But if it is serious for Britain and her allies it is ten times more serious for Germany and her allies notwithstanding her organization, her trained troops and any successes she may have attained so far. Germany may be near slowing up while Britain grows stronger day by day, and more successful. We can hold on, perhaps Germany can't, and we can hold on while the strain in Germany grows more and more severe.

Just For Fun

Johnnie, said an employer to his office boy, in this office you must be careful not to overhear remarks that are not intended for you. Do you understand? Yes, sir, said Johnnie. Then he turned to his typist at the table. Miss Brown, did you hear what I said to Johnnie just now? Oh, no, sir, replied Miss Brown.

Britain Will Accept Carranza

London, Nov. 3.—Foreign Secretary Grey informed the Commons today that Britain intends to follow the course already taken by the States regarding the recognition of the Carranzagovernment in Mexico. He said the Government was in consultation on the subject with its Allies.

Receipt Books with stub attached, 30c. each. At Guardian Office.

Royal Naval Reserve

An Admiralty Telegram has been received by Commander MacDermott saying that the Trawler Othello II, had been blown up on the 21st October, and that Frederick James Butt, seaman, Newfoundland is missing and presumed to be drowned.

Reservist Frederick James Butt was a son of Mr. George Butt (of Nathaniel) and Mrs. Mary Butt (of Freshwater, Bay de Verde. He joined the Reserve on January 25th, 1915, and sailed with the Scandinavian contingent.

Through the courtesy of Commander MacDermott of H.M.S. Calypso, we have received the following copy of a letter from the Royal Naval Medical Information Bureau, Malta Branch, viz:—

R. N. Hospital, Malta, 30th Sept. 1915. Sir,—George Thompson, R.N.R. H.M.S. Grafton, was admitted to this hospital on 17th August, suffering from shell wounds in the head. He made a good recovery, and was discharged cured on 9th September.

A letter was sent to his wife, giving news of his admission and the nature and condition of his wounds; this is done in the case of every wounded man brought to this hospital, by the R. N. Friendly Union of Sailors' Wives.

Yours faithfully,
(Sgd) MAUDE LAURENCE SMITH, Hon. Secretary.

Reservist George Thompson resides at Coley's Point, Bay Roberts. He took passage to England in the S. S. Carthaginian, on November 14th, 1914.

Bulgar Leader Goes To Prison

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 23, via Amsterdam and London.—A Bulgarian military court has convicted M. Stambulivsky, leader of the agrarians, of anti-militaristic propaganda and has sentenced him to imprisonment for life. Two other agrarian deputies, M. Charankoff and M. Larkisoff, were tried on the same charge. M. Charankoff was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and M. Korisoff was acquitted.

M. Stambulivsky was one of a number of Bulgarian statesmen who went to King Ferdinand shortly before Bulgaria entered the war and sought to persuade him not to permit the nation to take up arms with Germany and her allies. According to press dispatches at the time they used strong words, even suggesting that King Ferdinand's throne would be endangered by such conduct. He is reported to have warned the King that a military alliance with Germany might cost him his head, whereas on the king replied, "Do not trouble about my head. My head is an old one; rather think of your own." M. Stambulivsky is said to have responded, "My head matters little, sir. I am thinking only of the country."

The Missionary Meetings in connection with the Methodist churches of Bay Roberts circuit will be held during the week beginning November 15th. Revs. W. H. Breving and H. Royle will be the deputations.

NEWS IN A LINE

The Imperial Engine will wear well. It can be kept as cool as you want it. This means long life.

"Mamma," said a little boy to his mother, "when the devil dies, will the Kaiser be the next one?"

Volunteer Wilfred Parsons, son of William and Doreas Parsons, was here recently to say good-bye to his parents and friends, before leaving for England.

A very encouraging and pleasing fact in connection with the Prohibition election was the stand in favor of Prohibition taken by hundreds of men who are fowl of a drink of liquor.

Onto.—Prohibition was ever welcomingly defeated in yesterday's elections.
