PANAMA, Dec. 15-The report of an at-

to-day at Barnfu: long colliery, Wigan. When the meeting closed friends crowded | The men had not been at work long before around Mr. Parkin to grasp his hand and the terrible explosion shook the earth for a great distance and clouds of smoke shot up citement prevailed. It was soon ascertained heartrending. It is believed the accumulated gas caused the explosion. The rescue parties report horrible scenes in the mine. In the main roads the bodies shaft. Large sections of the roof and galleries have collapsed. Amid the ruins were found mangled bodies and half barned limbs. The ruins have b'ocked many parts of the mine and therefore the men scarching for bodies are unable to give any definite idea The bad boy often fares better than he of the number lost. Several miners w ho were just alive when found died on the way to the surface, or shortly after being taken from the car. One rescue party reached the surface half suffocated by heat and smoke caused by a fresh outbreak of the tire. The work of rescue will be continued throughout the night, although there is little hope that more men will be taken out alive.
