KNOW SOMETHING OF APPETITE. Folly—So you've met that handsome westerner?

Dolly—Yes. He took me to a dinner at the Van Gilders' last evening. And, by the way, he was pleased to remark that I had an appetite like a bird.

"Well, he's a good judge. He runs an ostrich farm, you know."

IN A FIT OF JEALOUSY. (Judge.) "Why did Gayboy's handsome stenographer leave him so suddenly?"

"He says she found a number of letters from his wife in his desk."

THE WEATHER.

Forecasts—Moderate to fresh south to east winds; showers in west portion; fine in east. Thursday, variable winds.

Synopsis.—Rain is falling heavily over the New England states, but is not spreading very quickly. To the Banks the wind promises to be moderate southwest to southeast, and to American ports, fresh easterly.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Allan line steamer Carthaginian, is due in Halifax with two hundred and fifty passengers.

Special.—Soft wood and kindling out in stove lengths, $1.15 per big load at Watters', Walker's wharf. Telephone 612.

James Kennedy has been reported by the police for having a staging with out a light in front of his house on August 3rd and 4th.

In the police court this morning two drunks, Frank O'Neill and John McDonald, were fined four dollars or ten days each. McDonald paid.

Mr. Earle is still surveying for the new street railway in Carleton, and the work of preparing the streets for the rails will not be started for a day or two.

There will be a band concert at Prospect Point this Saturday afternoon at 3.30. The artillery band will be in attendance.

Geo. H. V. Belyea left by C. P. R. this morning to be present at the funeral of his sister-in-law, the wife of Herbert Belyea, of Newcastle. Mrs. Belyea died suddenly of hemorrhages on Monday last, and her body will be interred today at Albert, Albert county. A sister, Mrs. R. Christie, went to Newcastle Saturday and accompanied the remains to Albert.

AFTER BASE BALL CHAMPIONSHIP. Barnes & Co.'s baseballists will meet the Vim Tea ball players tonight on the Barracks. The affair should be keenly contested, as the teams are quite evenly matched and each seek the commercial championship.

QUAKER MEDICINE CO. Office and salesroom, 80 Prince William street, St. John, N. B. The book Practical Family Physician gives you every package of medicine for a limited time. Money refunded if goods not satisfactory. Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

IN A HURRY TO PAY. Although the tax notices will not be sent out until the end of this week, Chamberlain Sandall has already been paid a number of fairly large amounts. One of these was over three hundred and fifty dollars, another eighty, and a third thirty-five dollars. These people seem to be in a hurry and have made sure of the five per cent deduction. In all over twelve thousand tax notices are being sent out.

TO SHOOT AT TRURO. Representatives of the St. John Rifle Club left this morning for Truro, where they will shoot tomorrow for the Truro trophy, presented for competition by the citizens of Truro. Members from all the rifle clubs in the Maritime provinces will compete. Those who went from here are Neil J. Morrison, C. S. Wetmore, A. L. McIntosh, H. Langstroth, J. O. McKay, David Connolly, holder of the P. R. A. medal, E. S. Farren, winner of the Corporation Cup, James Manning and E. T. Gladwin.

IT MAY BE WARM. There will be a meeting of the directors of the McAdamsite Company this afternoon. The out-of-town directors arrived this morning, and it is understood that they are preparing for a lively meeting. There is a rumor abroad that trouble is brewing over the disposition of stocks. That all is not sunshine in McAdamsite circles seems evident from the remark made to a friend by one of the directors this morning. In talking of matters relative to the company's movements, the gentleman in question said rather forcibly: "Yes, that nuisance, I kicked him out of my office yesterday."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR PICNIC. The annual Christian Endeavor picnic went up to Brown's Flats yesterday. The steamer Victoria left her wharf at 4.30, with nearly 700 people. The grounds were reached at 6 o'clock and luncheon was served in Beulah Camp. Rev. Mr. Kirby offered prayer and pronounced benediction. The party left the grounds at eight o'clock, sailed up river, and then down in the moonlight. Music was well rendered and greatly enjoyed. At 10.15 the Victoria arrived at her wharf, and the party found seven street cars awaiting them at Indiantown. The committee merits sincere congratulations.

WITH THE AMATEUR LEAGUE. The Portlands Y. M. C. A.'s of the amateur league, play today at St. Andrews for a big prize. The Portlands and Clippers were originally booked for this event, but some of the latter team were unable to obtain leave of absence, hence the Y. M. C. A.'s substituted.

The Franklins and Y. M. C. A.'s had been set down to play a postponed game tonight on the Victoria grounds. The unexpected trip of the Y. M. C. A. has caused a postponement of this event. Arrangements were being made today for an exhibition game tonight between the league leaders and rivals, the Franklins and Clippers.

THANKFUL. (Chicago News.) Young Shortrup—Sir, I—er—wish to marry your daughter.

J. BROOKS SUTHERLAND.

Principal of Milltown School Was Accidentally Shot This Morning.

ST. STEPHEN, Aug. 5.—By the accidental discharge of a gun this morning, J. Brooks Sutherland, principal of the Milltown school met with painful injuries. One foot has been entirely shot away and it is doubtful if the other can be saved. The accident happened while Mr. Sutherland and his wife were encamped at Oak Bay. He was alone on the beach and his cries for help attracted the aid of Dr. Laughlin, who was camping near him. He was brought to the Chipman hospital and is now in the operating room. Mr. Sutherland is a native of Kingsclear.

"OLD JED PROUTY." Richard Golden's beautiful story, "Old Jed Prouty," will be the attraction at the Opera House next Thursday night. The presentation will be in the hands of a cast that will do full justice to the quaint and delightful characters contained in the play. The characters are difficult, due to their simplicity and delicacy, being the kind of portraiture to which the finest shades (hardly anything so strong as coloring can be used) and delicate drawings upon nature, are necessary to keep them from the commonplace. The sentiment of "Old Jed Prouty" touches the purest well-springs of human nature.

HALIFAX MEMORIAL. Halifax will soon have its memorial statue. It will be the figure of a Canadian Mounted Rifleman, and will be placed in a commanding position in the public grounds. It is on its way out from Glasgow now.

The memorial is to stand in the center of the little pond, where a concrete foundation has already been prepared for it. The figure will be seven feet high and will be an exact reproduction of a Canadian mounted rifleman, with rifle and Stetson hat. It is expected that within two weeks the memorial will be set up and will be unveiled on some public occasion.

A HANDSOME PORTRAIT. A beautifully executed full-length portrait of the late Miss Josephine Magilton, of North End, daughter of Joseph Magilton, has recently been finished by Mrs. M. E. Webster, and is exhibited in the window of Reid Bros., 56 King street. The picture is richly framed and is finished in water colors, depicting the talented young vocalist in a standing posture, leaning against a chair.

VAN HORNE'S OPINION. "The Canadian Pacific Railway, Grand Trunk Railway or any other all-Canadian route," said Sir William Van Horne, today, "will never voluntarily carry a car load of wheat by an all-Canadian railway route around the great lakes to an eastern Canadian port for shipment abroad, for the simple reason that it will never pay any road to do so. Nor will transportation problems of the west ever be solved by the construction of an all-Canadian route from coast to coast."

BURIED TODAY. This afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the funeral of G. W. Storm took place from the residence of the son of the deceased, 11 Pond street. Rev. Mr. Fotheringham officiated, and interment was made at the Methodist cemetery. The funeral of John Thompson took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Penna officiating. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

JAMES A. KINCADE. The body of James A. Kincaide arrived from Portland, Me., by this morning's express. The dead boy's father accompanied the remains. The body was embalmed and will be taken to Queen's county for interment by boat tomorrow morning. The deceased was a lad of eighteen years, and had gone to Portland with the others of the family some years ago. A boy named Thomas Fagan was fooling with a gun had playfully pointed it at the three standing around.

At a Halifax Reception—"Sir, allow me to shake hands with you, just by way of showing that I know somebody here. With pleasure, sir, as I am precisely in the same boat as yourself."

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Jennie McNeil, Mrs. George Palmer and Mrs. Carr, mother of St. John arrived by boat yesterday and will spend a few days visiting friends in the city. Mrs. Miller leaves for Montreal on Friday to join her son, who has secured a lucrative position in the C. P. R. office in that city. Arthur Cummings of St. John is visiting friends in the city for a few weeks. Miss Amy McKisic left by steamer Victoria this morning for St. John where she will visit relatives.—Fred'n Gleaser.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, daughter of the hon. minister of justice, came down from Quebec this morning, and this afternoon left on the C. P. R. for St. Andrews to spend some days at the cottage of Mrs. W. S. Fielding who is summing there.

The announcement was made Sunday that Capt. Marcus Pierce, for the past two years master of the handsome steamer City of Rockland of the Eastern Steamship Co.'s Bangor and Boston division, has resigned his position. This was no surprise to Capt. Pierce's friends who have known that he has contemplated for some time retiring from active service.

Harry McClaskey arrived home yesterday from New York. He will probably remain here for a month.

Mrs. Geo. H. Waring of Lancaster left yesterday for Williamstown Station, Mass., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Boyce.

Miss Tweedie, of Chatham, left for home by this morning's C. P. R. Col. Donville came down from Ottawa this morning.

D. R. Jack arrived by C. P. R. this morning.

Mrs. S. C. Kelly, of Fredericton, came to the city this morning. Alfred Meahan, Montreal, president of the New Brunswick railway, arrived by private car Alberta this morning.

Miss Ella Morrison left today for Portland, Maine, on a short vacation. A. J. S. Scott of Fredericton is at the Victoria.

Mrs. C. M. Manning of Fredericton is a guest at the Royal.

A SEA SERPENT. Springhill Should Certainly Enforce the Scott Act.

Messrs. Moses Palmer, Charles Pickering and Mrs. Carter, who came from Hawshaw on a scow yesterday, told a pitiful tale. The scow was loaded with boilers, which Messrs. Shaw, Cassels & Co. were shipping to St. John. At Russell Bar, which is a portion of the new No. 4 warehouse, the scow grounded. While endeavoring to clear the scow the men saw something that started them all praying for their lives. They had not got over their fear when they were picked up by the schooner Hazel Oneta, Capt. William Wabson, of Gloucester, thirty miles east of Mount Desert Rock.

The woman was half dead from exhaustion and the scow was full of titles of salt water taken to quench her thirst, and was carried to Long Island, where she revived during the night sufficiently to relate her experience. She is expected to recover.

Mrs. Carter and the old Owl's Head Sunday to row to her home at Monroe's Island, about three-quarters of a mile. One oar broke and she drifted to sea, passing unnoted by several pleasure craft just at dusk.

During the gale which swept the coast and continued all day Monday she became hysterical, and abandoning all hope of rescue, she drank large quantities of the sea water, and several vessels at sea, but the weather was so rough she was not seen. She lay down and must have fallen asleep, for she remembered nothing.

Mrs. Carter went to Monroe's Island two years ago from Bangor. Parties in boats had been searching for her since Monday morning.

KIDNAPPED TO GET "PRISON EXPERIENCE." Chicago Young Woman Expresses Joy That Her Offence Will Put Her in Bridewell.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 5.—When Justice Quinn ordered a $50 fine for Viola Larson, the natural inference was that she was receiving a punishment for an alleged attempt to kidnap Miss Juliette Bond, of No. 482 Drake boulevard, but the expression of satisfaction which overpowered the countenance of the erratic prisoner indicated that she was delighted with the outcome.

"Yes, I know the $50 fine imposed by the court will set me on my feet, but I do not mind that," said Viola after the sentence was recorded. "I want to go, for it will be a new experience for me and for the new book on which I am working. I am deeply sorry, however, for my mother and for Miss Bond, and have decided not to seek again for literary material in a way that the police may interfere with."

This is the third time within ten months that Miss Larson has fallen into the hands of the police through eccentric methods of securing material for an alleged book. Her first episode was the stealing of a horse and buggy. Three months later she was arrested on a charge of annoying a young lady on the west side by writing threatening notes and making engagements to meet her.

USING RABBITS TO DECIDE HEREDITY. Interesting Experiments Are Being Made by a Professor at Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 2.—Experiments to prove certain theories of heredity are being made with rabbits, mice and guinea pigs by Dr. W. E. Castle, of the biological department of Harvard. For this work he has been devious of securing all of the different kinds of these animals, but this far has been unable to procure a specimen of the South American guinea pig.

Through efforts of friends of the university, however, there is now a consignment of those animals in New York, waiting to get through the custom-house in order to reach the university and be of service in establishing laws that Darwin was only able to hint at. The South American guinea pig is brownish in color and has distinct characteristics. With it the effects of cross-breeding—which is the method by which the results for which Dr. Castle is striving are obtained—can easily be seen.

"Yes," said the Billville feller, "that boy shall be taught to tell the truth." "He's mighty young to be so far from home," replied the parson.

THIS EVENING. Public meeting in Carleton City hall, Meeting of Carpenters' Union. Kate Claxton at the Opera House in the "Two Orphans."

Colonels Pugmire and Sharp at the Charlotte street Salvation Army barracks. Band concert on King Square.

Steamer Indrani, from Glasgow, is landing Scotch Hard Coal for Gibbon & Co.

KATE CLAXTON

In "The Two Orphans"

"The Two Orphans," without Kate Claxton as the blind girl, is like "The Old Homestead" without Denman Thompson, or "Rip Van Winkle" without Joseph Jefferson. There are few playgoers in the United States who can say they have not seen Kate Claxton in "The Two Orphans." Since 1875 this actress has appeared in the conventional roles which she grasps and the performances given by her are practically uncountable. There is said to be not a single deviation in Miss Claxton's interpretation of the role today and her portraiture of years ago. She has played the blind girl so many years that the part comes like second nature to her. Miss Claxton appears to be interested in the part now as though it had become a portion of her existence. Miss Claxton makes a farewell revival of her greatest success, "The Two Orphans," this evening. The wonder often finds expression that this play would last as a potent attraction for so great a length of time, but the cause is not difficult to explain.

No play in recent years has been better constructed, appealing as it does to all the emotions of the theatre-goers. Along with "Rip Van Winkle" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "The Two Orphans" is justly regarded as almost equal in popularity. Of course the former are American classics, while "The Two Orphans" is a French story, delightfully told by D'Ennery, one of the greatest of France's playwrights. Miss Claxton and "The Two Orphans" are always synonymous. Miss Claxton, of course, will be again seen here as the orphan blind girl, "Louise," a part that she has played many hundreds of times with a skill and pathos that has never been equalled by any one in a similar part. She is said to portray this part quite as well as when she originally appeared in it and contributed to make "The Two Orphans" the most popular play of the present generation. This is the last opportunity the theatre-goers of St. John will have to see this world famous star.

WOMAN FOUND ADRIFT. Mrs. Carter Rescued Half Dead After Tossing About for Three Days in a Dory.

ROCKLAND, Me., Monday.—Blown 75 miles out to sea and two days adrift in a dory—that was the experience of Mrs. Carter, of Monroe's Island. She was formerly Miss Pease, of Bangor. The gale on Monday, the most severe ever experienced in Penobscot Bay. Fishermen declared they never saw anything like it, and express the greatest surprise that the dory lived through it. Mrs. Carter was picked up yesterday afternoon by the fishing schooner Hazel Oneta, Capt. William Wabson, of Gloucester, thirty miles east of Mount Desert Rock.

The woman was half dead from exhaustion and the scow was full of titles of salt water taken to quench her thirst, and was carried to Long Island, where she revived during the night sufficiently to relate her experience. She is expected to recover.

ARREST REVEALS SOLDIER OF FORTUNE. (New York Herald.) Standing at attention, his military carriage and distinguished bearing making a striking contrast to the other prisoners, Baron De La Purcelline, formerly an officer in the Hungarian army, was arraigned before Magistrate Barlow in the Yorkville police court, charged with grand larceny.

He was arrested on the complaint of Frank Bergman, who keeps a German boarding house at No. 216 East Seventy-ninth street. The Baron's arrest revealed the story of his flight from Hungary because of his love for an officers' wife at Budapest, his family having persuaded him to take this course rather than fight a duel.

He who wishes to rise in the world should veil his ambition with the forms of humility.

TWIN SULLIVAN WRITES HOME.

Banker Commercial. The following letter has been received from Jack (Twin) Sullivan:

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 31. To the Banker Commercial: Just a few lines to let you know that I am down here, where I am to meet Folly 'Commy' again Aug. 10 in a fifteen-round bout. The last go we had was at Halifax, N. S. I could not go as fast as I wanted to, as the club people were afraid the police would jump in and "pinch" the club. I am coming to try my best to win here; that is, if I can get a square chance. It is Connolly's home, and I have got to beat him good to win out.

After my go with Connolly I will return to Boston and try hard to get a match with Jack O'Brien, as there
