C. P. R. MAY HAVE STRIKE

MONTREAL, July 22.—It is stated in railway circles that a general strike of the employees of the mechanical department of the C. P. R. is likely as the result of the decision of the board of arbitration. Officials of the company laughed at the story, however. The great majority of the men would be well satisfied with the ruling of the board, they declared, though a few sore heads might still be anxious for trouble. It was rumored in financial circles here yesterday that the Dominion Steel and Coal Company had closed down two of their blast furnaces in Sydney, but no confirmation of the report was obtainable. 21-7-11

WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER BY BOSTON DESPERADOES

BOSTON, July 22.—While the police were chasing two men who are believed to have been members of the gang which robbed a saloon in Jamaica Plain and killed one man and wounded two others last night, a woman was shot and killed and four policemen badly wounded. One of them died later. The woman was standing in a doorway near St. Thomas' Church at the corner of Keyes and Centre streets when the fugitives, pursued by the police, came running down the street firing wildly. The robbers escaped. Three more persons became the victims of the desperadoes' bullets in the neighborhood of Franklin Park. Herbert E. Knox, 42 years old, of 475 Canterbury street, Roslindale, night watchman of the Forest Hills cemetery, was shot in the abdomen; Edward McMahon, 31 years old, a patrolman of Station 3, living at 15 Pearl street, Dorchester, also received a bullet in the abdomen; and Patrolman Thompson of Station 13, was shot in the head. The three men were taken to Emerson Hospital, and it is feared that they will not recover. As soon as the fugitives entered Franklin Park, a cordon of police heavily armed with rifles and revolvers was thrown about the park and thousands of citizens gathered there. According to a small boy who saw the two men re-loading their weapons in a sand pit near the park early in the evening, each man carried three revolvers. Herbert E. Knox, the night watchman of the Forest Hills Cemetery, who was shot in the abdomen by one of the desperadoes, died at the Emerson Hospital late tonight. The condition of Patrolman McMahon and Mrs. Fallon, two other victims, was very critical shortly before midnight and it was feared that they could not live through the night. Driven from their hiding place by hunger or fear they would be surrounded by the police who were searching the neighborhood, the two men appeared on Charles street in Jamaica Plain at about dusk, coming from the direction of Cunningham Field. Some citizens who had been assisting in the hunt for the robbers saw the men and tried to intercept them, whereupon the two started to run and, with a revolver in each hand, fled along Charles, South, Lee and Keyes streets, firing madly and indiscriminately. Mrs. Fallon was the first mark of the murderous weapons. Officer Ingalls was shot next, and then Messrs. Moore, Flynn, McGinn, Nolan, Fleming and Officer Fox received bullets in succession. John H. Wrightman of 54 Keyes street was also shot at, but the bullet did not hit him, although it passed through his trousers leg. Michael Flynn stopped to pick up a stone as he saw the fugitives coming toward him, and instantly one of the men fired at him. One bullet grazed his ear and the side of his head and others knocked his hat off. Conductor Moore stepped from a street on Washington street to go to his house just as the highwaymen appeared there, and he immediately became a mark for a bullet. He was wounded in the leg. From Keyes street the robbers crossed Forest Hill street and entered Franklin Park. At that point Police Officer Cox tried to intercept them but was also shot down. By this time darkness had fallen and the men were lost to view in an unfrequented part of the park. Their course through the crowded Jamaica Plain district was fully two miles in length, and though they left a trail of wounded scattered along their path they were themselves apparently unharmed by the bullets from the police revolvers. The police surrounded Forest Hills cemetery after learning that the fugitives had escaped from Franklin Park. Late tonight 20 officers under the direction of Superintendent Pierce were strung around the cemetery, while a hundred more, aided by calcium searchlights, furnished by the fire department, explored the inside of the cemetery. The officers were confident that they had the men surrounded there and that their capture would soon be effected. 21-7-11

WOMAN ARRESTED FOR TEARING DOWN FLAG

G.A.R. Post Accuses Her and Husband of Desecrating U. S. Emblem

WEST CHESTER, Pa., July 22.—At the instance of the members of McCall Post, G. A. R., of this place, a warrant was issued this afternoon on Mrs. Mary Hayes and her husband, C. R. J. Hayes, charging them with tearing down United States flags on the morning of July 5 at the residence of Gilbert E. Stubbie, who lives next door to the defendants and in a house owned by Dr. Thos. Warrant was served by Constable James E. McParlane, commander of the post taking cognizance of the alleged desecration. A hearing will be held next Wednesday. Mrs. Hayes, it is said, asserts she took down the flags in the presence of the Stubbies, because they were presenting an unsightly appearance on Sunday morning, July 5. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are owners of several houses here and are engaged in the business of paper hanging. They have been married about twelve years, and both have at the home the greater part of their lives. They are members of Episcopal church of the Holy Trinity. Mrs. Hayes was a school teacher before her marriage. 21-7-11

RAG-TIME SALVATION NOT LASTING, HE SAYS

Vanderbilt University Teacher
Condemns Present-Day Church Hymns

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., July 22.—C. C. Washburn, director of music at Vanderbilt University, in an address here today on "The Relation of the Church to Music as an Art," held up church music and hymnals to heated criticism, and condemned "two-by-four tunes" as poor church props, "which ought to be relegated to the attic." "Traveling evangelists who sell their own hymnals at camp meetings were condemned as 'out for the cash,'" and Sunday school music was declared to be far behind the public schools in developing the finer appreciations of children. "If Sunday schools were up to date," said Mr. Washburn, "they would at least keep pace with the development of music as it is taught in the public schools. Moreover, I don't believe the results are permanent when persons get salvation by listening to psalms sung by popular rag-time music. Church music needs to be re-nated." 21-7-11

YOUNGEST SON OF THE FAMILY.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was the youngest son of the family and the one that distinguished Coleman and Washington Irving were the youngest of eleven children. Benjamin Franklin, the last boy, was the youngest. John Christian, the eleventh and youngest of Johann Sebastian Bach's children, was also the youngest of them; Wagner, Mozart and Rubens were each the last of seven, as was also Daniel Webster. Reinhardt was the baby in a family of six, Schumann in one of five, George Eliot in one of four and Charles Lamb the youngest of three. The full list of famous youngest sons is a formidable one. 21-7-11
