

The following is a summary :—

In the First District nine churches reported. Of these two report baptisms, and six prayer or conference meetings; and six have pastors. The total resident membership in this District is 288; the total contribution to support of ministry and local expenses was $497.34, making an average of $1.72 per resident member.

Of the twenty-five churches in the Second District, reporting, ten report baptisms during the year, and twenty-four prayer or conference meetings; twenty-four have regular pastoral oversight. The total resident membership is 1,305, and their total contribution to pastoral support and local expenses was $5,755—an average of $4.41 per resident member.

In the Third District, sixteen churches reported. Of these twelve report additions by baptism, and fourteen prayer or conference meetings, fourteen have pastors. The total resident membership in this District is 1,015; and the total contribution to support of ministry and local expenses was $3,586.81, making an average of $3.80 per resident member.

In the Fourth District, ten churches reported. Four of these report baptisms; nine report regular prayer or conference meetings, and seven have pastors. Their resident membership is 622, and they contribute to pastors' salary and local expenses $908.78, being an average of $1.46 per resident member.

Of the churches in the Fifth District, seventeen reported, thirteen of whom had pastors; sixteen had regular prayer and conference meetings, and five had additions by baptism. These churches, representing 733 resident members, contributed for support of ministry and local expenses $1,510.38, or an average of $2.08 per resident member.

In the Sixth District, twenty-seven churches reported; fifteen report baptisms, twenty-five prayer or conference meetings, and twenty-four have pastors. The total contribution of these churches to pastors' salary and local expenses was $4,141.86; and the resident membership is 1,265, making an average contribution of $3.30 per resident member.

Of the fourteen churches composing the Seventh District, twelve reported; seven of these report baptisms, twelve regular prayer or conference meetings, and the same number have pastors. The total resident membership is 1,504, and the total contribution to support of ministry and local expenses was $5,901.78; an average of $3.92 per resident member.

The total number of baptisms this year were 437, and the total contributions to local expenses, including pastors' salary, were $22,217.98, or an average of $3.36 for each of the 6,654 resident members.

Of the 116 churches reporting 100 had pastoral care, and 106