It is much to be regretted that the class for school garden exhibits did not flourish as well as it should have done. The exhibits were not so numerous as in previous years, and the quality was not so high.

Manual Training and School Exhibits. Right up to the hour of closing the Manual Training exhibit continued to be a centre of attraction, and the interest in it was not less than in the other exhibits.

Butter Making Awards. The awards in the butter making competition, which were given out during the morning, resulted in a division of the bulk of the prize money among three competitors.

Carriage Horses in Harness. The judging in class 18 for carriage horses in harness took place in the afternoon before the grand stand, and was watched with much interest.

single class there were four entries, E. L. Jewett, Brady Row, Charles Carter, of Red Head, and W. H. Barnaby. The special prizes in Class 21, offered by the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association for cattle over in the maritime provinces and registered in the Dominion Shorthorn Herd Book, resulted as follows:

Herd, bull and four females, any age—C. A. Archibald, Truro, 1st; R. A. Snowball, Chatham, 2nd. Bull, any age—R. A. Snowball, 1st; C. A. Archibald, 2nd. Bull and three of his get—R. A. Snowball, 1st; C. A. Archibald, 2nd.

There were only two exhibits for the best general display of the products of a school garden and as the conditions stipulated that at least five schools must compete to secure a division of the prize money, which amounted to $50, the full award was not made.

HERRING SWARMING IN HARBOR WATERS. The harbor at the end of South wharf on Monday evening literally swarmed with herring. So many were leaping out of the water and falling back again that there was a continuous sound as of waves breaking on the beach. Some three years ago, about the first of September, a similar herring swarming took place in Sydney harbor. The herring swarmed on the beach and within a week boats from down the bay were returning to Leitchfield with their harbors full of herring. In no previous season have they appeared in such numbers so far up the harbor as St. John.
