

CHANGE OF NAME.

At a meeting of the Committee, held on January 10th, 1898, it was unanimously resolved that the name of the Society in future should be the "Women's National Immigration Society," and that due notice of the change of name should be sent to the Government, to all kindred Societies and published in the local newspapers