Commissioners, that the nex rowid doubless convey to J. would doubless convey to J. would be gratifying to the set. This, intell governor Eyre. This, intell governor Eyre. This, intell governor Eyre. This, intell governor Eyre. The set of the ity, and the friends of the disposed to mark with conder disposed to be and the set of Great Britain, and honour of Great The following despatch fro State for the Colonies was mail, addressed to His Exce

Williams: Williams: I have to acknowledge the I have to acknowledge the South No. 30, of the 26th A apatch, No. 30, of the 2012 A a Resolution agreed upon the Legislature of Nova Sco Confederation of the Britist

Provincies. Her Majesty's Government Her Majesty's Government festion which you express, this measure was warmly au men of both parties in that ment, and that the proposed ment, and that the proposed ment, and that the proposed as a measure calculated to co on the Province of Nova So Isvail myself of this opp to you my thanks for the Tel-ing the above important int ing the above important int ing the active important in your request was sent to m by the British Consul, on the NEW BRUNSWICK - The

NEW BRUNSWICK - I her chients is from the St. John ful socident occured in Mr. I Saturday morning. By the five or six persons have been and two lives lost. On Friday a man named On Friday a man named ling out from under the pla track, at Salisbury station, w to rula'e, had both his lege o to relate, had both the regent t is understood that he can James Young, one of the Cordelia had three of his fin planing machine at Turnbu Main street. He and his o Main street. He and his mining the mischinery. Y the danger of placing his he did not feel alarmed, and sad penalty of his rashness er scaman of the same vessel mast head on Friday and bro at the dott is now under not killed, but is now under in the Marine Hospita':

in the Marine Hospith: A Stranger whose name from the gangway of the s Tuesday night, and was dru adds the following: ... A young man was sadd Kirk & Worfall's saw mill. Two seamen fell yesterda of the ship Yorick, while ha and were severely injured." The Journal thus states th of these gentlemen to Hali Mr. Brydges, we unde with a view of opening up sincess between Montreal at land. He proposes to put and to supply Nova Scotia far below the American rat agement is offered. By all is the best article, and Bakers and flour dealers a call at the Waverly.

Wednesday. Mr. Brydges is confiden in Halifax a superior artic. ably under American rates, at shorter notice than it ca VERSE's from auy NEVER FAILING SAFE pointed, but not one Wesleyan Clergyman s fe and certain remedy which Children are afflict either Board in the County. Is this cours or in good taste? Is it just? The large h of teething. It has sto years. Never known to mother and relief to olic and regulates the b The filling of the vacancy in the staff of CURE FOR COUGH C teachers in the Provincial Normal School by there is the slightest u with difficulty of breat Cough, take during the Bronchial Troches." ingredients, they allay dilitary Officers have them in readiness arce of a Cold or Cough the rature the duties allotted to him; and many prayers the reminds the Corinthians how he first preached is generation, and at the same time transition of his is winning for itself a way in the high places will be offered for his personal safety and the the gospel among these. He did not affect to ap-and then prayed with unwonted ferrency and God, and they translated books, until now the To the Editor of the Provincial Wesleyan.

London, May 12, 1866.

hould it be otherwise ? They are mutually atment ; and are equally desirous to maintain the ame allegiance to the British Thrope.

From our English Correspondent. Extraordinary Commercial Panic-Europe on of War-May Meetings-Rev.

London to-day is in a state of the greatest London today is in to be inevitable that a or not, we hope that they have already learned ter of gospel preaching, which to be effective of grace," "with all the powers of prayer" we love of Christ controversy, but been money panic should arise some where about once so much about each other, as to lead them to in magnitude or suddenness to the unparalleled have much in common. Not only do we presch in magnitude or suddenness to the unparameter have much in common. The only are mode of the natural man," he affirms, "received not fully enhanced if, as some anticipate, "The natural man," he affirms, "received not fully enhanced if, as some anticipate, "The part of God is for they are tilence that waiketh in darkness," should at that its highest point. For several weeks past one discipline is the same, while our respective Con-Finance Company after another has been known ferences are both affiliated to the Parent body to be in difficulties, and several have entirely in Fineland. At meant you are ahead of us in to be in difficulties, and several have entirely in England. At present you are ahead of us in collapsed. These Companies are joint stock associations, for the purpose of supplying capital the Rev. G. Sectt on his way to preside at our to contractors and other speculators who may Conference, and then you will share his company require it. They are a comparatively new invention, and have enjoyed a run of great popu- to Esgland.

to get 25 or 30 per cent. for their money. The old maxim, that high interest means uncertain risb, whilst we believe you have some who are security, has received a fresh illustration in the not strangers in Canada. " Let brotherly love fate of many of those Companies during the last continue." It strikes us that it would not be few weeks, and so prevalent had the public any disadvantage to either of our Conferences, sound and respectable Companies could not find between us. It will be six years since we sent buyers at any price. The panic rose to a a Deputation to each other's Conference. To buyers at any price. The panic rose to a a Deputation to each other's contenent. It man out appendix in paning large field for labor and usefulness. It requires not as much external splendor, as the great the conquests of the Redeemer's kingdon, as Gurney & Co., the largest money-discounting of both Conferences have as many claims as preach and visit, the various localities scattered the business of this firm, and of the unbounded ties of vravel increase, the expense will be les- ship of nearly four hundred. To attend fully confidence placed in it, may be formed from the sened.

fact that at the time of their failure the deposits amounted to nine million and a half sterling. Conference which is to be held in Montreal- and incessant exertions of two ministers are ne-Yesterday another failure almost equally start- 'The City of Canada'-pity that it is not the cessary; but the means,-the money to sustain ling was announced-that of the firm of Peto & Metropolitan City. Methodism there occupies them, or to meet their expenses, is the great Betts, the largest railway contractors in Eng- a commanding position, and recently the friends difficulty. land, who have 40,000 men in their employ, and have been making vigorous efforts in respect to During the past year my colleague and myself

Morton Peto the head of the firm was recently ture usefulness.

there. The panic formed the chief subject of prated failure of crops, the contributions to the all our appointments. discussion last night in Parliament, and through- Missionary Fund fell far below the demands the The congregations are good, and the people had been removed by death, among them the lamented Mr. Draper, lost in the wreck of the out the day the excitement in the city was such among them the city was such an attentively to the word preached. We however has failed to meet the severe pressure, and it is hoped that in the course of a few ever, the death-knell of the debt has been sound are pressing forward in the way to the kingdom however is not matter of regret. But we are not the Board for Cumberland Proper, then and it is noped that in the course of a low ever, the death-knell of the debt has been sound-days this singular epidemic of commercial mad-ed : more than thirty thousand dollars have been of heaven, and endeavoring to promote the re-by outward circumstances, now important it is family, pleading for each one by name until all hithesto held sacred to the Vedae the Shastras, that we note communion only with preper pire had been remembered. On the Monday evening and the Purshes? Is that not hing? Few and lion, takes its hue from the object on which it is he took part in the prayer-meeting, referred to feeble were the men who first went to the East; placed should we not exercise the greatest the uncertainty of life, alluded to the death of but they began like sound-hearted Protestants, praces, should we not exclose the greatest his children, hoping to meet them in heaven, like men who believed in God and the truth of From our Canadian Correspondent.

MY DEAR SIR .- Canada and the Eastern Proaces of British America stand closely related productions of the most hateful and hellish lusts ;

Unhappily, for reasons which we cannot now the brink George Scott. in ten years. There was a panic in 1847, and wish for a still better acquaintance.

another in 1857; but neither of those approach larity with the shareholders, as most people like distrust of them become, that the shares even of if there was a little more friendly interchange when the failure was announced of Overend expense, and we suppose the Contingent Fund no small amount of effort and time to travel, and house in the world. Some idea of the extent of they can meet. Let us hope that as the facili- over such an extent of country, with a member-

We are all hopeful respecting the approaching of our numerous heavers, more than the united in Canada and met with a splendid reception

ness, for such it really is, will have subsided.

Paul hath said, "Evil communications cor. power. Before leaving the place of prayer be Bible has been translated into twelve of the prinrupt good manners," to which all who desire to was struck with paralysis, was carried home, cipal and most important languages of India rupt good manners, to would do well to lingered through the night, but never spoke, and until now can be had the "Pilgrim's Progress" look-a beacon set up by the noble apostle as a about a quarter past ten on Tuesday morning in the vernaculer for 6d, and a variety of other the 15th of May, he passed calmly and peace . books, such as " Spiritual Milk," for three far-fully to the rest of heaven. Thus closed his work and his life. His de- to bear upon public sentiment, and are taking parture was more a translation than a death. His the place of the foulest literature and the vilest own oft-expressed desire was fully realized, it is not a time to retreat.

" My body with my charge lay down, And cease at once to work and live." Died on the 15th inst., at Fredericton, N. B. JOHN LATHERN. the Rev. Wm. Smithson. He was a native of books, our papers and places of amusement --

Bhitnarn.

REV. WILLIAM SMITHSON.

Yorkshire, England-a freeman of the ancient membership of the Methodist Church. In 1822 or 1823, he commenced to warn sinners to flee from the wrath to come, and took his place in warning to all future ages.

Fredericton, N. B., May 24th, 1866.

city of York. When about 19 years of age, he was brought for the first time, into contact with the tirobincial Celeslevan. Wesleyan ministry, was converted to God, and in a few months after, at Thirsk, was enrolled in the

ESDAY, MAY 30, 1-66

The May Anniversaries.

the circuit as a duly accredited local preacher. The Anniversaries of the principal religion His energy and burning zeal and natural elossociations of Great Britain, usually held durquence in preaching the everlasting Gospel ating the month of May in the metropolis, exhibit gregation, worshipping in Dublin, in Jreland, to in a highly gratifying light the organized relibecome their pastor. Such a charge would gious beneficence of British christians. The have been in harmony with his own convictions number of such societies, the various forms in which christian zeal puts forth effort for the of life-work, but the ties which bound him to the world's evangelization, and the scale upon which christian enterprises are sustained, may well fill Church, instrumental in his conversion, were too strong to be severed, and he declined the invithe heart of every christian philanthropist with direction, and he was providentially led to the gratitude and joy. The principal societies rework of the ministry in the Church of his choice. port an increase in their receipts, affording He was received by the Conference of 1825, and reason to believe that systematic beneficence is from that period until his death, for 41 years, he advancing and bearing some proportion to increasing opportunities for the extension of was incessantly engaged in the prosecution of his great work. His first appointment was to christian work. The British and Foreign Bible Society, in the the Shetland Isles. The destitution of the peonobleness of its aim, and the catholicity of its ple of those Islands deeply excited his sympathies, and one of the last appeals he ever made spirit, unquestionably occupies a high position, was in behalf of the Shetland mission. In 1826 as it claims and receives very general co-operhe removed to Higham Ferrers in the London ation and support. Its receipts for the past District. On the last day of April or the first of year exceed £171,000. Its home issues for the May in 1827 he left London, in company with year have been 1,471,044 copies of the Scripthe Rev. M. Pickles, who still survives, for St. tures; 825,086 copies have been circulated John, having been appointed to labour in the abroad. What the spiritual results may be of Province of New Brunswick, then considered as this wide-spread, though quiet, labour, even a field of purely missionary effort. He was mar- during a single year, etcrnity alone can shew. ried in 1829, and was appointed to the Freder- The Church Missionary Society has to rejoice in icton circuit. A few, and but a few, who were the increased interest felt in its missions, as then connected with the infant cause of Metho- evinced in the gratifying fact of an increase in dism in this city, remain until this day, retaining its receipts of more than £10,000. pleasing reminiscences of a ministry fraught The Wesleyan Missionary Society's receipts were £144,885, the expenditure £143,707. with evangelical fervour and the rich unction Since the last anniversary, twenty-six missionof the Holy Ghost. He was stationed in Portland, St. John, at the time of the cholera visita- aries and sixteen wives of missionaries had been tionin 1834, and by a remarkable coincidence, sent out by the Society. Seven missionaries twenty years after, when the cholera again raged had been removed by death, among them the in that city in 1854, he occupied the same sphere " London."

of labor. His incessant and generous and fear-The speech of the chairman, John Fernley, less efforts will be long remembered by the peo-Esq., of Southport, a liberal supporter of Methople of Portland. Without intermission demaads dist interests, was worthy of the occasion. were made upon him, often by entire strangers, Referring to the mighty influence of christian but none were ever refused. When pestilence missions, he said :was walking infdarkness and wasting by noon-

" The abolition of slavery in our own colonies day-carrying dismay to s'rong hearts and spreading a funeral hue over every habitation, is mainly attributable to the influence of Prohe braved the pestilence and tracked the cholment and conscience of Parliament and the things. When these things are being brought take time to explain, the inhabitants of British been so well acquainted with each other, as it is certainly desirable they should be ; whether the him crucified." Confederation of the Provinces shall be effected

In a Methodistic point of view, you and we, power; but he teaches that it is the Spirit of Conference services. one important particular. You have received again at your Conference, before his departure In the Canada Conference there are those who isplay his great power and light in larger effuonce laboured in your section of the Wesley paregenerated and saved.

> May 20, 1866. -----Wallace Circuit.

> > MR. EDITOR.-On this circuit we have (to the requirements of the Church, independent

ARMINIUS.

manner of preaching would have better accorded with the Conference now rapidly approaching. the sense in which God requires it manner of preaching would have better accorded with the Conference now rapidly approaching. that is too much to ask of poor each with the taste of this polished people, had the Lo order that this desirable result of our yearly ture, the answer is God. with the taste of this polished people, had the IJ order that this desirable result of our yearly ture, the answer is God asks it, had a postle sought to address the educated and re-Apostle sought to address the educated and re-fined. To such the cross was emphatically give ourselves to special prayer; and also en-Even the lowest degree of our fined. To such the cross was emphatically give ourselves to special prayer; and also en-"foolishness." But we have learned already deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to any deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to end on the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the grace to end on the earnest supplications of our inhere is unstructed by the earnest supplication by t become atill more intimately identified. Why universal appliesbility, if men would acknow- business of the Conference that some time has and big normal sin. This is the usiversal applicability, if men would soknow-business of the Conference that some time has ledge the truth; if the preachers of the cross elapsed after we have reached our Circuits be-who ask is work to accomplish should it be otherwise? They are mutually at-tached to the same beloved Queen, whom may were free from the swelling vanity of human for we were spiritually in trim for our special Now. How? The faith at the swelling ware free from the swelling vanity of human for we were spiritually in trim for our special Now. tached to the same beloved Queen, whom may God bless. They have the same form of govern-learning, and had more faith in the promise of work as evangelists and Pastors. May this not all things are possible to him. learning, and had more faith in the promise of work as evangelists and Pastors. Alay this not all things are possible to him that being the in Master, than to seek to gratify the ungodly be prevented, by careful attention to private as all things are possible to him that being

" Is there a thing too hard for thee Almighty Lord of all an thee This was much dwelt upon by our fa-North America, Western, Eastern, have not Christ was the beginning, the middle, and the ings? Is there not a danger of indulging the the great object to be accompliabed by the ter of gospel preaching, which to be effective of grace," "with all the powers of prayer" we love of Christ constrained them, and have salvation and glory in the antidat of they fall that they were all then and have been all they fall that they were all then and have been all they fall that they were all the antidat of they fall that they were all they fall that they were all they fall the antidat of they fall that they were all they fall the antidat of the God alone who can reveal the things of God. The solemnity of the occession with the westers were taised up to thege the standard of Coristian morals, and it with that foolishness unto him : neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." There is no truth more evident than this, in the We are always safe while reposing in the blood truth on this account? God forbill the of the world. O ! that this Divine Agent might by day." It may also be a time of fraternal intercourse is not the wisdom that comes from shore. In splay his great power and light in larger effu-ons; that the church may be sanctified, and with other denominations. One hundred mini-with other denominations. One hundred mini-who have ceased to urge this preimaters tions; that the church may be sanctified, and with other denomination of the Presbyterian Church, from Nova-the suffering sin-debased sons of men may be sters of the Presbyterian Church, from Nova-because unworthy leaders have same Scotia expect to meet their Brethren of New championship, have fallen into the same pro-Brunswick to consummate some union matters. ed by the enemy. Shall we abandon Contained Brunswick to consummate some tangible demon-because it has had poor defenden, and he Shell we not then have some tangloss existing worthy professors? We must disminate in Protestantian ? Surely the Presbyters, the ter than this or expect to incur the diplement convocation of Bishops at Rome!

ing very special of a religious kind to commu- cond century of our career, more than we not nicate. In the month of March we had a very all things else the baptism of the Hely Gree pleasing and interesting Tea Meeting, which re- Such a baptism as shall perfect the love of Ga mited in the obtainment of nearly $180.00 in all our hearts-as shall bring our hearts into it aid of the trust fund of our place of worship in timate sympathy with the heart of the Louis Carleton.

I hope Bro. Wilson's book on Newfoundland for the salvation of men, as shall induce other &c., will be liberally patronized by our people. It to take knowledge of us that we have been a whose undertakings are being carried on in Church extension. They have now six magnifi-have worked together harmoniously; and through is well got up. The binding and typography Christ-as shall give new life to all our have whose undertakings are being carried on in Church extension. They have now six mightle have worked together harmoniously; and through are excellent. The matter well arranged, with ing, and praying, and labor to ave them. cent churches, and have a good prospect of fu-ture usefulness. During the last few years, owing to the re-with two or three solitary exceptions, to attend though the substance of the book appeared in ations whatsoever .- Bishop Kingsley. the "Wesleyan" some months ago, yet the addiout the day the excitement in the city was such result of which has been, not only a curuber-as can never be remembered. Ladies having some debt, but remember out prive to some debt, but remember out prive to some debt, but remember of the kaltor of the remember of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the remember of the remember of the kaltor of the remember of the as can never be remembered. Ladies having some deb', but numerous prive is confirming the have not, however, to record any special out control with a contro money lying at the various banks were seen in this control of laster of period in the source of particulations at the source of particle of particulations at the source of particulation of p before the bank should close its doors. Mer-chants and tradesmen were seen rushing in by been in a state of serious embarrassnet; and Sabbath and week evenings, well attended; and chants and tradesmen were seen rushing in by been in a state of serious embarrassnie...; and Sabbath and week evenings, well attended; and per is far in advance of what it used to be pre-bundreds with equal impatience demanding to to assist the ordinary expenses of that noble serie there are indications of spiritual improvement. bundreds with equal impatience demanding to to assist the ordinary expenses of that noble sert there are indications of spiritual improvement. vious to the war in the United States. Our Boards of School Commissioner, hat include the series of the series te paid their balance is in cash. Univ one bank however has failed to meet the severe pressure, their own very limited income. Happily, how-ness of some, we cannot but rejoice that others Conference does not abound with authors. This not one Wesleyan Clergyman was apound a "foolishness." But we have learned already deavour to enlist the earnest supplications of our image is unattainable in our own of the this church was composed for the most part, people generally in reference to this object. the same Almighty power that that this church was composed for the most part, people generally in reference to this object. the same Almighty power that the same Almighty power that the same Almighty power that the hearts in part can rener the same and the same almight power that power that the same almight power that power that the same vinces of British America stand closely related if not wholly, of the humbler sort; "not many Have we not frequently been somewnat disap-to each other, and if the Confederation scheme wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not pointed on these festive, yet laborious occasions? hearts in part can renew them in was o each other, and if the Confederation scheme wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not pointed on these festive, yet is portious occusious that can be also be adopted, then, undoubtedly, they must many noble." This mode of preaching is of Our minds have become so occupied with the ain cat cleantes a craving of their auditors. To such this chapter well as to public devotion? Would it not also is admonitory. St. Paul never preached a ser- be well, instead of so many preaching services mon without Christ in it. On the contrary, to vary them with prayer and fellowship meet-

Carleton, St. John, N. B.

Christ was the beginning, the middle, and the ings? Is there not a danger of induging the enjoyment of this "perfect ending; 'twas taught " save Jesus Christ and idea that the sermon is the most important part pel, and the enjoyment of this " perfect ending is the sermon is the most important part them middle. mding; 'twas taught "save Jesus Christ and idea that the sermon is the most important part gave them mighty power with God and we men. They preached it as we should push the interval of public worship? If ministers and people men. They preached it as we should push they felt that they were called to spread in tural holiness throughout the land God alone who can reveal the things of God. The solemnity of the occasion will be pain-The Wesleys were reised up to eletan

There is no truth more evident than this, in the history of the church, for eighteen hundred yeare. The Holy Ghost has ever been the agent the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth it? Oh let us shun the snare of Sain! h

Scriptural Bishops, of these Provinces may have of God. as good a time,-a display of as much love, if With all our appliances for pashing faren they are such as no other church on earth pas In reference to Circuit matters I have noth- sesses, we need just now, entering upon the a sus-as shall set our souls on fire with hely pa

We unhesitatingly answer, No. It would be blessing to the inhabitants of Truro, what de pressions of contempt of the manners sid been given to a Wesleyan.

Arithmetic are Presbyterians that it is foited on the public in the most imperative manner by the Council? He were a mere novice in the science of numbers who would not know, the

the most desultory examination of the work

General Intelligence.

Colonial

of the Provinces, with appropriate ceres

Yours &c.,

Whatever God requires of any hum

5

high and low, rich and poor, whenever or where- country; and we may rejoice to add that by the era stricken city, by day and by night, amongst ever duty called him. The last three years operation of the same evangelical principles in of his public ministry were spent in the Halifax the American Church s, which are pre-eminent District, of which he was chairman. And for their missionary character, slavery is now by whose unanimous suffrages he had been ele is so stupendous in itself, and will, no doubt, be are being moved in various directions, public vated to that honorable position, the highest so glorious in its consequences to the progress of that coold be accorded to him, except the Presidency of the Conference, will ever cherish a as members of a great Missionary Society, to deep remembrance of his fidelity and kindness. adore and magnify the divine wisdom and myshis anxiety for the cause of God, and his solici- terious power by which the blessed object has tude for the welfare of his brethren.

A good criterion of his ministerial intercou was the affection of his people. They were soon impressed with the fact that he was a man of English language is spoken, there is not one one work, and that he sought not theirs but slave, and no impediment from this cause exists them. He never left a circuit but in harmony to hinder the universal proclamation of the Gosand love with all the brethren, and was otten pel of our common salvation." after an absence cordially welcomed to the same from trials and difficulties common to man, but years in that country :-

than to live and die a Methodist preacher."

sermon delivered appropriate addresses.

Faithful he was : but never harsh.

His christian deportment, fervour of spirit. platform of the Bible and Missionary meetings. administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper renewed the tickets of membership to use of the his life the several kinds of work which had dedist Church.

christianity and civilization, that it becomes us, ation, menaced by Italy on the south and Prussia been consummated. Thank God that this foul on the north, is not the most hopeful. Until blot upon American liberty is now wiped out, within the last few weeks the idea of war was and that it may now be said, that, wherever the unpopular with the bulk of the Prussian nation, but they too have caught the infection and all parties seem eager for the fray. The reason of the war is, that Prussia, having determined to The cause of the world's enlightenment and take possession of the Province of Holstein, sphere of labour. On his leaving his last cir- salvation was advocated with great ability, by cuit, the Quarterly meeting passed a resolution the President of the Conference, by the Rev. expressive of the esteem in which he was held W. Arthur, the Rev. Samuel Coley and others. in Newport, and of the sense they entertained Our space will not admit of our giving even a to force her to give up the Province of Venetia of three years of faithful service in their midst, brief synopsis of the several speeches; we conto which an appropriate and characteristic re- tent ourselves with a glance at some interesting ply was returned. "During the forty years of my statements made by Rev. John Kilner, from ministerial life" he said, "I have not been exempt Ceylon, who had been a missionary for eighteen to advantage. If war should actually break

I thank God I have enjoyed good health, wit- He protested against retrenchment. He was nessed some revivals of religion and seen much once sent out on a mission of retreat but he heof the goodness of the Lord. I have ever loved ped never to go on another. A retreat from any was threatened with dismemberment, four years my work, and I hope, on fetiring from the labor- part of the mission field was occasioned by peofous and responsible duties of a circuit, still to ple contributing sixpence instead of a shilling, preach the gospel of Christ while health and and one guinea instead of five. When he was strength shall last. I aspire to nothing greater sent out it was not to law before native agents new plans of work ; he went out to say that re-

A very prominent feature of Mr. Smithson's trenchment was to be the order of the day. He character was his catholicity of spirit. His sym- did not like to have to deliver such a message. pathies were never bounded by the lines of mere There were, for instance, fourteen native agents denominationalism. He always cherished to- who had been trained at the Society's expense, wards clergymen of other churches, and chris- and men were not so easily obtained in India. tians of other communions, a friendly freling. These were to be disbanded, fourteen schools and endesvoured to live with them in the bonds were to be closed-schools which had been at Exeter Hall is admitted on all hands to be of Charity. When leaving the Newport Circuit, preaching houses as well. What would be one of the best meetings which have been held in his closing zervice, the ministers of the Epis- thought of shutting up fourteen chapels in any copal and of the Presbyterian churches accom- circuit in England? And six hundred children speeches of the day were those of the two mispanied him to the pulpits and after his farewell who had been brought up in these schools and sionaries from India, Messrs. Kilner and Simptrained in Christian principles,-these were to be Possessing a disposition naturally cheerful and dispersed and thrown back. The heathen asked enthusiasm as it is difficult to describe. Mr. happy, and tempered by the grace of God, he why these schools were closed, the priests beheld Arthur, who had just returned from a month's thoroughly enjoyed life, and carried the sunshine the ast with astonishment. It was not a pleasant holiday spent in surveying the various Protesof his own happiness into every circle that he thing to have to write." To let" on any of their tant Churches in Italy, gave a clear and busientered. For every one he had a word of kind- mission houses ; they would far rather occupy ness-like statement of our Mission there, and ness and encouragement. He could reprove until the Master came. Many missionaries were Mr. Coley spoke in that racy conversational with plainness and fidelity when the occasion so distressed at the thought of work being aban- anecdotal style, in which he has absolutely no demanded, but with so much of courtesy and doned that had had a prosperous commence. rival. One eminent minister of another denomtenderness of mainer as rarely to give offence. ment, that they were well-nigh crushed by the ination is usually selected on these occasions heavy responsibilities that rested upon them. The Rev. Henry Allon, who assisted at the

If the meeting could only understand the mat- recent Anniversary, occupies a foremost place and beaming expression of countenance, indicative of constant peace within, will not soon be shall not retrench." What had occasioned all congregation at Islington, is one of the principal forgetten in this city. The same spirit with which he mingled in cur own services, he to the disbanding of agents and children? The the Independents, and is also Editor of the carried into the union meetings held in the several churches, at the commencement of the year, tion. Methodists did not know what they were A'lon may be justly called intellectual; his serto the daily prayer meetings, and to the public doing if, for the sake of such a sum, they closed mons are addressed chiefly to the intellect, and fourteen vernacul ar schools. Before he left Eng- he uniformly reads them. Mr. Punshon was land he should have styled such conduct un-Eng- not present at the late Anniversary, the state of mitted to work until the last. Within a little lish; at least it was un-Methodistic. If John his health rendering it unadvisable. It is not at more than a week of his death, he preached, Wesley had had a silver spoon to sell, he would all improbable that at the next Conference he have parted with it e e such retrenchment should will become a supernumerary for one year at have been allowed to proceed. The present was least. Should his hea'th sufficiently recover-Sabbath classes, took charge of the prayer- not a time for retrenchment or retreat. Brah- after a year's rest, there is a rumour that he meeting, attended a funeral, and visited the sick, thus crowding into the last brief space of big life to rectand out of recta at a time like this that there should be any Osborn should be appointed to take charge of yolved upon him in the ministry of the Metho- thought of retreat? Some time ago, he visited the Missionary College, which it is expected will a large temple at one of our stations in Southern be ready by that time. Methodism possesses no

The last text from which he preached on the India-and a marvellous structure it is, with better theologian than Dr. Osborn. Sabbath before he died, was in harmony with some seven separate inclosures, and in each it clo- By the time this letter reaches its destination the character of his entire ministry, and com-prehended the burden of all his preaching. "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" The same evening at family wor-ship, he read the last chapter of the last chapter of the moble life and tranquil Joshua, referred to the noble life and tranquil sure, they say 1000 monkeys, while in the centre the period will be rapidly approaching for the "How shall we escope if we neglect so great saleation?" The same evening at family wor-ship, he read the last chapter of the book of ship, he read the last chapter of the book of death of that ancient servant of God, and hoped bulging out there, but who cares!" Again, why spirit, qualify him, in a remarkable manner, for subscribed, the largest proportion of which has ligion of Jesus in their respective neighborhoods. It is worthy of note, that the au-been paid, so that henceforth the College will be We know, from the authority of Scripture, that gabization. It is worthy of note, that the au-Catholics, three of whom are priest, weng The aspect of affairs on the continent of Europe is daily becoming more and more war- free.

like. Italy is armed to the teeth, the king has enthusiasm knows no bounds, Garibaldi has the recommendation, we have no doubt, but that thus render it " quick and powerful" in the con- reference to the grants from the Contingent for the signal to attack the Austrian province of Venetia. Austria has placed the whole of her immense army on a war footing, and her situ-Yours, &c.

> CANADA. May 18, 1866.

The Pauline Epistles. 1 CORINTHIANS

This Epistle is supposed to have been writte recently severed from Denmark, Austria deterthere (Acts xx. 31; 1 Cor. xxi. 8) A.D. 57.- hope that a little extra liberality, on their part mines to prevent it; while Italy helps Prussia in We have an interesting account of the introduc- will meet the emergency. the hope of being able so to cripple Austria as tion of the gospel into Coristh in Acts xviii.-As the result of the Apostle's teaching during a many, both old and young, from time into an year and half, a considerable church was esta-blished; but soon after he left, the peace of the bers have been removed from the Church mililooks on, taking no immediate part with either, but waiting his opportunity to turn the contest made great pretensions to knowledge of itant, to the Church triumphant. In addition some measure at least, at the door of England. If England had resolved to take up arms in defence of Denmark, when that little kingdom ago, by the German powers, it is scarcely possible that the present situation could have ed the infant church, and a party arose who exoccurred. The policy of non-intervention in cused their sinful excesses under the boast of the affairs of other nations, which has become popular of late years, is neither so humane nor so christian as at first sight it may appear to be. and if persistently pursued will deprive England of all weight in the councils of Europe.

The May Anniversaries have once more con and gone. The Wesleyan Missionary Meeting dition of the Corinthian church sufficiently indi-Jesus sustained and blessed him. Blessed incates the scope and purport of St. Paul's forcible deed " are the dead who die in the Lord."

It is quite impossible to take up this compre-It is quite impossible to take up this compre-hensive and beautiful epistle in extenso, or even a single chapter in the space of a newspaper column; and we can do no more than refer to some of its striking features, with a reference to those doctrines which have a particular bearing those doctrines which the Christian church. upon the present state of the Christian church. troubler in our israci, to man and printing of our friends, upon the present state of the Unristian churce. How simple and grand is the opening solutation and banediction, in which he asserts his apostolic authority, and magnifies the privileges of those who have embraced the gospel. Sosthenes who have a privileges of the church, will never be effaced from my mind. Nor can I forget their sympathy, their deep and constant sympathy, manifested gifts of doctrine and knowledge. Their underter, described his own teaching as elementary

Christian faith, and as admirably calculated to advance the glory of God, and humble the crea-ture before him; and intimates that the primary perfecting of the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the min-ture before him; and intimates that the primary before the saints, for the work of the minture the saints are saints. It is applied to the saints are saintsaints are the inductive rite of admission into the church. It were better (ao we understand the Acoustic Now he that planteth and that giveth the stance, while perfect brass would require a pro-N. B. ELECTIONS.-Northumberland the Acoustic Canadianter and the stance of the stan

In the second chapter of this epistle the Apos-Wallace, May 17, 1866.

God's ' word shall not return unto Him void, but thor of this last work is now the oldest efficient This being the Centenary year of Methodism shall accomplish that which he pleases, and shall Missionary in the wide field of British Metho-

District, of which he was chairman. And the their missionary character, slavery is now abolished in that great country. This last event the who rides upon his ' white horse," the Gost the who rides upon his ' white horse, " the Gost are being moved in various directions, public are being moved in various directions, public are being moved in various directions with a source of the who rides upon his ' white horse," the Gost are being moved in various directions with a source of the who rides upon his ' white horse," the Gost are being moved in various directions with a source of the who rides upon his ' white horse, " the Gost are being moved in various directions, public are being moved in various directions with a source of the woork with recommended the Conference to rate the sum pel of his salvation, will accompany his ownword say it gives me pain, to alter on the wrong side certainly have their representatives in the resjoined the army, and everything seems waiting the last 100 years. Should the Conference adopt with the influences of the Divine Spirit, and the figures as written at our F. D. Meeting, in tive Boards.

Methodism in Canada will be much benefitted. version of sinners, and in building up believers Fund to claimant circuits. Five Hundred Dollars is a small sum among so many, but some appointing a Presbyterian, is carrying out de in their most holy faith. will feel the loss more deeply than we may ima- same spirit that would support a Presbytes This year it will require, in consequence of the failure of the grain crops, unusual efforts gine. In this as in other matters we have but College, with fat-salaried Professors, out of and liberality, on the part of our collectors and to work, believe and pray, and God will open public chest. With a Presbyterian Coller the hearts of men to supply the wants of his Halifax and a Presbyterian Training 80 friends, to sustain the interests of the Church, faithful servants. There is sufficient wealth Truro, both kept up at the public experiand enable them to meet the financial demands of the circuit. But when I take into considera- within the bounds of our own denomination, to no wonder that peculiar inducement make up all deficiencies, and to enable us to sented to young persons of that ments to tion the large membership, the liberal contribupush forward vigorously the various interests of qualify themselves for the work d when tions of some, and the number who attend our Is the system of Education pursued at the So-at Ephesus during the last year of Paul'a sojourn ministry and believe our doctrines, I cannot but the cause of God in these Provinces. G. O. H. mal and Model Schools what it should be Carleton, St. John, N. B. the theory put into practice and catived a Death has also done its work, in removing Guyshoro' Circuit. MR. EDITOR,-During the past few months

our hearts have often been made glad, and we encouraged and strengthened to persevere in known, by no means measured, at 1 at encouraged and strengthened to persevere in conquering prayer, by reading in the columns of Colony at large, if the thorough gree dim made great pretensions to knowledge of christian liberty, also to elequence and wis-the influence of the Wesleyan, we may now particularly refer to two the Wesleyan of the revival of the work of God the Wesleyan of the revival of the work of God dom, and undermined the influence of the Apostle. Corinth was a large city, the capital of Achaia, and a scat of the elegant arts; but the inhabitants were no less singular for their profigacy. The prevailing licentiousness infectpious member of the Church, adorning the doc-trines of God any Series Device Device Lines and Conference have been especially pleasing. But trines of God our Saviour. During her last while the Lord has been pleased to pour out his tion in the Normal School: it is not informated in the second state of the sickness she invariably expressed to the writer spirit on this circuit, our souls have magnified that they should obtain their rightin the right in the should obtain their rightin the right in the should obtain their right in the should obtain the should christian liberty ; while an opposite party con-tended earnestly for the objectance of the Jewish tended earnestly for the observance of the Jewish ceremonies. Schism also arcse with the preach-truly peaceful. Bro. Teed, of Wentworth, died our Saviour. During the past few weeks above ceremonies. Schism also arcse with the preach-ing of Apollos and other teachers ; while liti-ing of Apollos and other teachers ; while litiing of Apollos and other teachers; while liti-gation and grosser evils prevailed, which treme, occasioned by a cancer which commence-treme, occasioned by a cancer which commence-term it, "this sweet peace." The work is still Is it because the members of a certain in betrayed a lamentable declession from the sim-plicity and purity of the gospel. Such a con-terminated his life. In the midst of his sufferings I baptized one adult above forty years of age; progressing. In our church in town last Sabbath, are Presbyterians, that the Council has guint on the previous Sabbath one above twenty; school-books, &c.? Is it simply becaus the these having given satisfactory evidence of their author and publishers of the Nova Set

I am glad to be informed through your valuconversion. To God be all the praise.

Guysboro', May 22, 1866.

Christian Purity.

that it possesses no claims in itself, either i perspicuity of style and arrangement, or Holiness-purity-is the great qualification for seeing God, either here or hereafter. The ordinary accuracy, to warrant the Council inspired definition of the kingdom of God, is authorize it alone as the text-book in Arithmeter "Righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy for the Schools of Nova Scotia. But such is the We do not wish to wound the feelings of any

JAMES BURNS.

Holiness, complete holiness, conformity to the but we do wish to see justice done. image of the heavenly, is the grand end of the Man 26th. 1866.

standing of Christian doctrine must have been fruits of righteousness. One therefore, in the mission that God has undertaken to provide a acquired from the ministry of Apollos and order of divine Providence, sows, and another system of salvation, complete salvation, perfect Kephas, as Paul subsequently, in the third chap-reaps, but it is God, and God only, "that giveth salvation, for the race. What has originated STREET RAILWAY .- Several of the cars tended for the Halifax City Railway have animand, it is expected, will be on the line in a state the increase." Some prepare the ground, sow the the need of this salvation ? Sin. To what is only. He exhorts them to brotherly love, having been informed by some God-honoring member reap the harvest. All have received their proper the gospel seeks to accomplish therefore, is a days.

the family of Chloe, that unhappy and injurious dissensions had arisen through a species of man-worship. He asserts and vindicates the doctrine of a crucified Saviour, and his own plain way of of a crucified Saviour, and his own plain way of "There are diversities of gifts, and diversities of deliverance from all sin, and from all the conpreaching it, as a fundamental article of the operations; but all these worketh that one and sequences of sin. It offers salvation to all and of the Provinces, with much enthusias work of an apostle is to preach the gospel, to prepare the unregenerate and unchristianized for the inductive rite of admission into the that waterest, but Goal that the prime of the that waterest. The that waterest is the that waterest is the that waterest is the that waterest. The that waterest is the that waterest is the that waterest is the that waterest is the that waterest. and true holiness, and love God with all the been returned by overwhelmning mile heart and our neighbour as ourselves. This is Christian perfection. This is what God expects GEO. JOHNSON.

United

The physician attendin tress Monroe, having been dent Johnson to make prisoner, submitted the fo He is considerably er sues having almost skin much shrivelled. flaccid and very soft, and cular strength. He is qu tated, consequently his vous and irregular. H present, are in comparati but become quickly derat but the most carefully pre diet disagreeing with him, promptly make their appet by vertigo, fever, spinal a an erysipelatous inflamme scalp and right side of affects the right eye-the now has and the standard of the s now has-and extends t into the interior nese. greatly deranged, being zcessively excitable. scarcely perceptible to a cause him much pain, sensation being as one every sentient nerve exp

Want of sleep has been the principal cause of his This has been produced b creaking boots of the ser the prison rooms, and the the expiration of every tw invariably wakens him. that he has scarcely enjoy sleep unbroken, at one t. Means have been ting on the floor for the alleviate this source of only partial success.

His vital condition is lo the recuperative force. by any of the severe for the tide-water region of with reason, fear for the r In consequence of the structions from Washing Major General Miles to g parole, the freedom of room at Carroll Hall at Connor, his counsel, have to the Fort ai d private i

President Johnson, am reconstruction, ordered th railroads and railroad run materials to an enormous men, on credit ; he direct in charge to turn over t the purchasers' notes, pa two years; the value of t nally sold, but in reality bably $200,000,000. O they fell due, were not ; intended they should be protest here in Washingt resident refuses to perm pel payment, or to neco low of this immense

NEW YORK, May 25 .-morning a fire broke out Freight Depot, destroyin and several sheds, 18 or bales of hay, and 22 hor baby $60,000 or $70,000

A young man, son of a whose name is suppressed as book-keeper in the 1 arrested for robbing that

Ghost " is associated with minister in the same person who is men-tioned Acts xviii. 17, after rards a convert to which continues to the present. image of the heavenly, is the grand of the supposed to be the same person who is men-tioned Acts xviii. 17, after rards a convert to which continues to the present. image of the heavenly, is the grand of tensely solicitous to secure this as the pearl of corinthian church, mostly Gentiles, upon their which I witnessed while there, induced me to universe. The great seriousness and deep attention, great price-the most precious thing in all the think that the seed sown would soon produce the Methodists understand from the great com-

