These flowers are God's own syllables;
They plead so lovingly, they lead
flo gently upwards to His hills!
If we might only learn to read—
If we might only learn to read and knowChrist's book of eighteen hundred year

Should know the beautoous mysteries, thould joy with one wide common voice, As joy the great earth-circling seas! Could we but read as Christ would have us

We then might know the living God

And this the lesson, this the book
That lies wide open now as then.
Come, read one syllable, come look
How broader than the books of men!
Come, catch the pathos of this harmony
Of beauteous toil—then all the world!

And dost thou, stricken soul, complain?
Behold the crushed blooms at thy feet;
Their glory is to rise again
And yield their sweetness still more

The Lord, He gave—the Lord shall take

And dost thou, toiling man, complain, Where God toils on eternally? Behold the patient, still, small rain; Behold the labors of the sea—

Sit down in this white, quiet town And hear the Virgin's Fountain flow, we maidens with their eyes held down, And noiseless-footed, come and go— we large-eyed maidens, stately-tail and With jar on palm poised in the stilly air.

GRAHAM, TUPPER, BORDEN & PARKER,

(Translated from the French.) I have deferred writing the better to testify to the benefits derived from the use of your Liniment. It has done wonders among all the people who have used it about here. I can certify that in every case where I have used it upon myself, I have been very well satisfied. Mr. N. Mooney, of St. Sylvester, had a bad leg which was said to be incurable. I told him to use Simson's Liniment, and it has effected a complete cure in a very short time. His neighbor, Mr. John Devlin, having received a very serious cut in his leg, Mr. Mooney took him the Liniment, and having used it, found himself completely cured. I have been assured of the cures of these people, and the remedy having become known, it has created quite a demand, people coming as far as 35 miles to procure it for

Mr. Wm. Bennett, of St. Ferdinand, has had it some time for himself, and he has since bought it for his friends, who suffer from Rheumatism, and they have all been well. I have never known any medicine to have had such good results about here as Simson's Liniment. Hoping that it will prove as satisfactory elsewhere. I am, yours truly, DAMASE PAGEAT. St. Sylvester, Quebec, 27th Dec., 1888, Messrs. Brown Bros. & Co.
