The Natural Line of the Waist

is a very gradual curve, and it is essential that each section of a Corset should be so formed as to maintain the vertical lines of the body and readily conform to the figure of the wearer.

"The Contour,"

The CONTOUR

one of our latest style of Corsets, is perfect in this respect, and admirably adapted for a well-developed figure, either long or short waisted. It is made in dove-colored satin, boned with improved Coraline, and owes its popularity to its elegance of fit, great durability and unsurpassed comfort. Every genuine Corset has our name stamped on the inside.
