

Weight to be given to such testimony to be in the discretion of Court, Jury, &c. 6. The testimony of every person so offered as a witness, and the credit to be attached to his or her evidence and statements and his probity, shall in all cases be considered by the court, or person, or officer before whom it is given, and the weight or importance to be attached thereto, shall be always considered as in the discretion of the Court, Jury, Officer, or person or persons who have to deal with the same in all cases. 5

False affirmation, &c., to be punishable as perjury. 7. If any person making a solemn affirmation or declaration, or who shall give evidence under this Act, shall wilfully, falsely, and corruptly declare, affirm or state any matter or thing which, if the same had been sworn in the usual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, every such person so offending, shall incur the same penalties as by the laws and statutes in force in this Province, are, or may be enacted or provided against persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury. 10

Act limited to U. C. 8. This Act shall extend only to Upper Canada. 15