

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedies after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

The news frae Moidart cam yestreen
Will soon gar mony ferlie;
For ships o' war hae just came in,
And landed Royal Charlie!
Come through the heather, around him gather,

Ye're a' the welcomer early!
Around him cling, wi' a' your kin,
For wha'll be King but Charlie?
—Unknown.

The Kilt. After the "Prince Charlie" escapade, the wearing of the kilt was prohibited by statute. In 1782 this senseless and tyrannical law was repealed. The kilt again became common and fashionable; but it was the influence of Scott's romances that more than any other one thing, led to its present position of respect and honor.

Syboes. "What way do you married women no come to kirk?"

"O, we hae to stay at hame to mak the kail for the gudeman!"

"Mak them on Saturday; and warm them up after kirk!"

"They'll no keep; they'll be sour!"

"Pit neither leeks nor syboes in them, and I caution them!" replied the minister. Whether the absence of "syboes" (onions) wrought a reformation in the matter, we are not told.

Women Teaching. The other day Carlisle School Board appointed two lady teachers by lot. There were over a hundred applications for the two vacancies.

July and to 21st August was very hot and dry in Scotland. Many of the rivers were very shrunken. For instance, the Tay at Perth was said to have been lower than for twenty-six years previously.

Oh, sister, there are midnight dreams
That pass not with the morning;
Then ask not why my reason swims,
In a brain sae wildly burning!
And ask not why I fancy how
Yon wee bird sings wi' sorrow;
For blude lies mingled wi' the dew,
In the dowie dens o' Yarrow!

—Henry Scott Riddell.

"Heard ye no, that Maggie Flyter waukened this mornin' an' faund her guidman aheid beside her!"

"Ech me! what a waukening; and her no to hae her breakfast either!"

"Her breakfast, ye haver! what gude wad that hae dune her?"

"It's you that's the haver! If she had had her breakfast afore she waukened, she could hae stoden it better!"

The Gaelic. The Glasgow Herald says: "The present fad among would-be Highlanders is to have a hybrid name—half Gaelic and half English. And those who were baptised plain John Macdonald and James Macgregor now sign themselves Ian Macdonald and Hamish Macgregor."

After Burns! An Ayrshire poet, (a very long way after Burns!) thus allowed his Pegasus to kick over the traces:

"Unmanly, shameless, worthless villain,
Devoid o' every finer feelin',
Who with a base affected grace,
Applauds thy brother to his face,
Admires his humor, shares his plack,
And cuts his throat behind his back!"

The New Act. Under the new Act for Scotland, the "pubs" are not to be open for the public till 10 a.m. The funny man, in a Glasgow paper, says: "It juist comes to this, man, that when the new Act comes intae force, a Scotsman'll no be able tae get drunk unless he maks up his mind tae keep dead sober a' the time he's drinkin'!"

Burns.
If Independence in the heart
Has ever won its measure
If loves and lives of manly men
Have given the world a treasure
If on the brow of honest worth
A halo has been lighted
Thank Burns! who taught that never-more
Should man by man be slighted!

W. Wye Smith.

A Grand Scotsman. In the heart of Africa, among the Great Lakes, I have come across black men and women who remembered the only white man they ever saw before — David Livingstone. And as you cross his footsteps in that dark continent men's faces light up as they speak of the kind doctor who passed there years ago.—Henry Drummond.

Giving Him Honor. Rob. Herrick was a grave-digger in Falkirk for nearly a lifetime. And he had a sound estimate of character. One day he was digging a grave for a man who had been greatly respected as a good and just man. "He was a fine chiel," he explained to a passer-by; "I am howkin' his grave wi' a new spade!"

Edinburgh. The bailies (aldermen) and town councillors of both Edinburgh and Glasgow have united in sending a letter of protest to Premier Asquith on his refusal to receive a deputation from them on the question of women's suffrage. And they are right. Mr. Asquith should have received so respectable a deputation, even if his mind was already made up against their request.

Away with Depression and Melancholy.—These two evils are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and mean wretchedness to all whom they visit. The surest and speediest way to combat them is with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will restore the healthful action of the stomach and bring relief. They have proved their usefulness in thousands of cases and will continue to give relief to the suffering who are wise enough to use them.
