

Last summer CEC for students made available

333,000 job placements.

If you're a student looking for summer work, you owe it to yourself to visit your nearest Canada Employment Centre or Canada Employment Centre for Students.

(In Alberta, see your Hire-A-Student Office.)

Through "Summer Canada 1984", in co-operation with the private sector, opportunities are available in a variety of fields for varying lengths of time.

One could be yours this year.

This is your opportunity to acquire "previous experience".

Summer work is the ideal place to get real on-the-job experience. And in a few years when a prospective employer asks about previous work experience, you'll have it. It's also a good way of defining your future career goals, and at the very least, it sure helps to fatten up your resumé.

Looking at it in the short term, the money earned from a summer job can go a long way to furthering your education.

With 333,000 placements, one could be right for you.

With this many placements, there is obviously a large variety of jobs. There may be some in your area, in your specific field of interest. We urge you to register soon while the selection is the greatest.
