BUCKWHEAT

Zydeco Music, with its dense jangle of roots and influences from French, Country, Blues, Acadian, African and Creole sources, is taking North America by storm. Buckwheat, the first Zydeco star to be signed by a major label, (Island Records), is spearheading Zydeco's move from the dancehalls and folk festivals, into major rock venues. Hot off of a recent live performance on David Letterman and rave reviews from the New York Times and Billboard Magazine, this Halifax appearance promises, without a doubt, to be the city's party of the year.
