

Q. Do you know how much land is in your farm, how many acres?

A. There is 38 acres of that according to the location ticket I have from Muckle.

Q. Have you got the ticket here? A. No.

Q. Does that describe the number of the lot in the Parish?

A. Yes.

Q. It says lot so and so, does it? A. Yes.

Q. Apparently from what you tell me, the lot you occupy is lot 188? A. It must be, yes.

Q. And your mother-in-law Mrs. Cameron occupies lot 187?

A. Yes, that must be it.

Q. Your lot and hers are each a little over two chains?

A. Very, very little.

Q. When did you move on your lot?

A. Well, I could not tell the date.

Q. Before the transfer or afterwards?

A. A long time after.

Q. When did you get married?

A. Well, I could not exactly tell you.

Q. It was after the transfer? A. Oh yes.

Q. And when you went there your mother-in-law was living on her own lot? A. Oh yes.

Q. Can you tell me anything about who occupied this lot 187 at the time of the transfer? A. Yes, old Cameron.

Q. Old Cameron occupied it at the time of the transfer?

A. Yes, just himself.

Q. Did he occupy just the two chains? A. That is all.

Q. You don't know anything about his selling it?

A. I do not know anything about it. If I should tell you I should say "this man told me," and so on. That is not evidence at all.
