

Continuation of Statement of

Joseph Collier

a pair of trousers to Lieutenant Joyce at Chelsea for $1. The rest I have at my address excepting a tie and a pair of socks which I am now wearing, and I am writing that this property should be collected by Police as I want nothing further to do with it.

I realize now that I was extremely foolish in having anything to do with this property. I knew that Matthew's duty took him to the railway stations and I knew at the time that I got mixed up in these deals that I was doing wrong. It's too late now to say this, but I am very sorry that it's happened now for my wife and child, then for my own part.

Statement taken, has been read over to me and is correct. Joseph Collier.
