

leaving France, 8-9; his duties, 18; his interest in the Hôtel-Dieu, 29, 124-6; seeks to curtail the powers of the West India Company, 31-2, 42-4, 45, 73-4; erects new settlement at Charlesbourg, 29-3, 45-7; takes the first Canadian census in 1666-67, 23; favours punishing the Mohawks, 29; seeks to lay the foundations of a flourishing state by the acquisition of New Netherlands, 38-9, 40-1; his model farm, 47; encourages the growing of hemp and develops fisheries and shipbuilding, 49-50, 122-123; establishes trade with the West Indies, 50; on the coal-mine at Quebec, 51-2; erects a brewery, 53, 71-3; his matrimonial zeal, 54-6; on the number of baptisms and female immigration in 1671, 59; a colonial Colbert, 61; on the administration of justice, 62-4; his commercial regulations, 64-5; his interest in road-making, 70, 117; his relations with Courcelle, 74-5, 111, 121; on his judicial responsibility, 74-6; his position regarding the brandy traffic, 77-84; seeks to check church encroachment on the civil power, 85-8; on the question of tithes, 88-90; his interest in the Frenchification of the Indians, 91-3; and in education, 92-3, 125-6; great sorrow in New France at his departure, 96-7; uses his influence with the king on behalf of New France, 98-100; again appointed intendant, 101-2; sets out for New France and is shipwrecked off Lisbon, 102-3; concern in New France at his non-arrival, 106-7; reaches Quebec, 108; his schemes to protect and develop trade in the interior, 110-11; seeks to extend French influence, 113, 119; encourages exploration, 116, 118, 120; establishes trade with Acadia, 117-18; encourages weaving and tanning, 123-4; a maker of Canada, 126, 129-30; his health failing, begs to be relieved, 126-7; his seigneurial policy, 127-8; his departure from Canada and later career in France, 130.

Three Rivers, in 1665, 12-13.

Tithes, controversy anent, 88-91.

Tracy, Marquis de, arrives in Quebec, 5-6, 18; on Sovereign Council, 16-17, 65, 70, 87, 88-90, 92; makes treaties with the Five Nations, 25, 27-8; leads expedition of punishment against the Mohawks, 29-37; leaves Canada, 38.

Ursulines, 11; and the Frenchification of the Indians, 93-4, 125.

Varennas, Gaultier de, settles in New France, 59, 128; in expedition against the Senecas, 112.