

by open vote at the meeting provided for in clause 6 (c), and shall embody their reports in the Treasurer's annual statement.

12. This Constitution may be amended at the annual meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, after one week's notice of such amendment.