

CONTENTS.

xi

PAGE

Hon. W. B. Dalley in 1888.—The Great Strike of 1890.— Sailing of the "Royal Tar" in 1893 to Monte Video.— Failure of the Colony.—The Labour Party's Platform.— Growth of the Labour Party.—Death of Sir John Robert- son, 1891.—Resignation of the Earl of Jersey as Govern- or, 1893.—The Run on the New South Wales Savings Bank, Financial Crisis, 1893.—Suspension of Various Banks Nearly Causes a Panic.—Government Declares Bank Notes Legal Tender, and Allays the Panic.— Death of Sir Alfred Stephen, 1894, and Sir William Montague Manning, 1895.—Sir William Robert Gifford, the Governor of the Colony Dies March, 1895.—The Case of Geo. Dean, Ferry-boat Captain.—Royal Commission to Look into the Affair.—Confession of Dean's Lawyer, and its Outcome.—Death of Sir Henry Parkes, April 27th, 1896.....	103
---	-----

PART THREE.

VICTORIA.

CHAPTER IX.

VOYAGES OF DISCOVERY.

Landing of George Bass in Western Port, 1798.—Landing of Lieut. Grant in the "Lady Nelson," 1801.—Discovery of Seals on Schnapper Island by him.—Grant First Tills the Soil of Victoria.—Lieut. Murray, Six Months after, Finds Abundant Crops.—First Victorian Harvest-Home.
—Grant Explores Port Phillip.—A Brush with the Natives.—Colours of Great Britain and Ireland Hoisted.— Discoveries by Mr. Grimes, Surveyor-General of New South Wales in 1803.—Despatch of H. M. S. "Calcutta," and Transport "Ocean" to Port Phillip.—Unfavourable Report Given by the Commander, Collins.—Convicts
Sent Out, and Give Trouble.—Collins Leaves in 1804.—
First Overland Journey from New South Wales to Port