EXPLANATION .- Joseph McDonald, Esq. M. P. P. for Antigonish, has written to the Chronicle a contradiction and explanation of his alleged complicity in the burning of his house; and he produces Baxter's affidavit, under date 22nd August, 1867, setting forth that he (Baxter) was at Wine Harbor when Mr. McDonald's house was burned, and reiterating his (Baxter's) belief that the house was accidentally burned. Mr. McDonald states that the incendiarism story was used for "political effect" against him at the last election; and that having been confronted by him Baxter denied that had ever made such a statement, confirming his denial by an affidavit. It appears also that owing to the contradictory testimony of Baxter, be has been arrested on a charge of perjury and is bound over to answer the charge in the Su-preme Court at Guysboro.—Halifax Recorder.
