

Poetry.

By the Editor of the Guelph Herald. THE SON OF TEMPERANCE.

As when some hapless ocean wreck Drifts with the waves that round her break, Ere on the reef she lies;

Hope for the hopeless! help at need! The slave of the bowl from his bonds is freed, The Temperance plan to prove;

And see how joyous now that home, Where late no ray of hope o'er shone; Look on that mother's glistening eye, And judge of the cause the world decries.

Miscellaneous.

Astounding Freak of Nature.—On Friday last, an old lady, aged 81 years, died at Lawrenceville, of a disease of the bowels. A few days prior to her death, it was discovered that a tumor existed in her abdomen, and on being asked whether she was willing to have her body opened after her death, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature of the tumor, she assented.

A Thrilling Scene.—The following we cut from the New York Family Courier: "An affair occurred at our exhibition on Tuesday last, of the most intensely exciting and terrific description, and which, but for the interposition, daring and presence of Van Amburgh, would have certainly resulted in the horrible death of our old friend Signor Hydralgo.

Smart.—A Barrister entered one of the Four Courts, Dublin, with his wig so much awry as to cause a general titter. Seeing Curran smile, he said, "Do you see anything ridiculous in my wig?" "No," replied Curran; "nothing but your head."

Another American Wonder.—The "ninth" wonder of the world has been discovered in Wisconsin. It is a cave extending under the greater portion of two counties. One field of lead ore was found three miles in extent. A waterfall is in the cave, and is lake thirty-seven feet deep. A party lately passed three days in making explorations.

Strange.—A modern physiologist notes the extraordinary fact, that at the dinner-table, every time a man crooks his elbow, his mouth opens. Can any body explain this phenomenon?

'I'm off when you talk about working,' as the cork said to the ginger-pop.
