hospital, doing fine. I suppose the casualty list is at the Post Office before this reaches you. I can picture what it is like.

Well, we had a hot old time of it while we lasted and that wasn't long. About 9 o'clock 1st. July we were told to get ready and have a look at the German lines. Well, we did so, and went at it with a good heart. Each company had eight scouts, that's two scouts to a platoon. The scouts had to cut the barb wire and a sort of an advance line. Well as usual, in that sort of a job I was a scout and my "buttie" was a chap named Charlie Dawe from Topsail. I believe we were the first to lead the way.

As we started for the German lines they opened fire with machine gun and rifle fire. The poor fellow Dawe did him in the head. I can't say if he is slightly bruised about the body. didn't mind that, but let her go again most all of the boys falling like rain. About a dozen or so of us got near the German barb wire and there's where we had to take cover and wait for the supports to come up. The supports had to retire. I was there about two hours lying down waiting a chance to get back to our own lines, because it was only madness to try to advance any further and the battalion already wined out. Suddenly I got hit on the right shoulder, as it hit me is shattered my shoulder blade; don't know whether it was shrapnel or an explosive bullet. Anyway whatever it was it gave me a nice dab. One of the chaps near me at the time put a sort of a bandage around the wound. Well was knocked out for the count. Getting weak for the loss of blood, I said my last prayer, and things were lock-

I began to wonder if I could get back to our lines again, and made an effort, but no go. I didn't give up all hopes. I began to pray to the Blessed Virgin and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and all the Saints in Heaven to give me strength to get back. For certain my prayers were heard and I began to gather strength, and I said to myself, never mind Caul, old boy. try, you are not going to hang around those docks.
