

LEAFS WON WITH AID OF STORM

Toronto Had Lead of Three In Sixth, But Bears Tied It In The 7th.

THEN STORM CAME UP
Forced Umpire To Call The Game, Reverting To Last Of Sixth

Toronto, Aug. 21.—It is an ill wind that does not blow someone some good, and therefore when the rain halted the game yesterday between the Leafs and Newark after the Leafs had tied it up in the seventh and the wind had wrecked the stand, scoreboard and flagstaff besides drenching several thousand fans, it was hardly conceivable that the majority of those present would see anything good in such a disaster. But the league record tells the tale, for the game goes to Toronto by the score of three to nothing and is explained for the benefit of those who might not know that when a game is called and the inning is not completed the game reverts to the last complete inning, which, in this case, was the sixth, and the Leafs led at that time by the above score.

But for the rain there might be another story to tell, for Pennington who was twirling for Newark, had one of his good days and was getting better every minute as the game progressed. Just as he was to Hearn, whose one bad inning was in the seventh, was let down by Murray, the Leafs' new fielder, and incidentally, on his initial appearance at the Island Stadium, Murray had two errors in seven innings. However, this may have been due to nervousness and he will have many opportunities during the week to retrieve himself. Both pitchers were working nicely until Pennington went to the mound in the third and Hearn had struck out. Truesdale started the ball rolling, however, with a single and Jacobson beat out a tap in front of the plate when Egan threw high to first. Whiteman sent Truesdale home when he singled to left, while Jacobson advanced to third. Whiteman reached second on the throw in and both he and Jacobson tallied when Lajoie knocked down an awkward bounder, which rolled through second. Schultz flew out and Lajoie stole second, only to have Blackburne fan.

With a lead of three the Leafs settled down to defensive baseball, and looked as if they might margin enough to win, but in the first of the seventh Callahan led off with a single and Haas duplicated and Callahan went to the third corner. Elred drove a bounder down to Murray who made a terrible play for it and let the ball get away from him. Callahan scored, while Russell bled for it. Murray threw a single in the bud, for he popped to Hearn. Egan fled to Schultz and the runners moved up a base only to be scored a moment later when Pennington singled. This tied the score, but as there were two down, nothing more developed for Fuller forced Pennington at second.

The Leafs went to bat in their half of the inning while storm clouds gathered from all points in the heavens. Truesdale was passed and took second on Jacobson's grounded out. This looked another likely point for Toronto to break into the run column, with one on second and one out and Whiteman at bat. However, with three and nothing on the Leafs' left-fielder the game was suspended by rain and thirty minutes later Umpire Bedford called the game because of wet grounds, and stated that a double-header would be played today to catch up with the game which should have completed yesterday's double-header.

OLD GLORY SPEAKS
I am the Stars and Stripes, your flag. Let me forever be Symbol of Might, Justice and Right. Afloat over land and sea. New to a tyrant affronted, Jeered, insulted am I—What shall we do? 'Tis up to you, Freedom—our battle-cry.

Pleading I am and entreating What land America do? Columbia's sons, shoulder your guns, Old Glory waits for you. Show to the world that this nation Whose people make the laws, Stand firm to-day. Who dares to say "The Eagle has no claws?"

Your sires have shed their blood for me. Great Lincoln gave his life To shine your stars, enrich my bars And end internal strife. Behold Humanity bids me Strike for eternal peace, Pray make me strong, 'twill not be Until all wars shall cease.

I am whatever you make me, Your honor keeps me bright, My colors are red white and blue Have never lost a fight. And never will, if each to-day United firmly stands To "Do or Die" if that will buy The freedom of all lands.

Are You an Asset to Canada—or are You a Liability?

ARE you helping to win the War? Or could Canada put up a better fight without you?

Are you working—saving—paying—to back up the men at the front? Or are you loafing—wasting—spending on selfish indulgences the money that should be loaned to the Nation?

Man-power is at a premium! The time and strength of every man in Canada should be devoted whole-heartedly to really useful work—work that will help, directly or indirectly, in the Struggle.

Food is short the world over! Every housewife in Canada should devote herself earnestly to the problem of conserving it—of feeding our people well, yet economically and without waste.

Everyone should save—and lend the savings to the nation!

Canada needs every dollar you can invest in War Savings Certificates, and for every $21.50 you loan now, she will repay you $25.00 at the end of three years—or you can get your money back at any time. Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, which may be purchased at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.

CRUCIAL SERIES IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Red and White Sox Clash In Real Fight For The Pennant

BROKE EVEN MONDAY
Chicago; Tigers Beat The Yanks

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Chicago and Boston divided a double-header yesterday in the opening of the series which will have a big bearing on the pennant race. Chicago shut out the visitors 7 to 0 in the initial game, but Boston won the second, 3 to 1 in eight innings when it was called on account of darkness. Chicago still retains the lead by a scant margin.

In the first game Faber allowed the world's champions only four scattered hits, and only two Boston men reached second base. Chicago, on the other hand, batted Foster and Bader freely. Faber was given perfect support. Cicotte's wildness in the second inning of the second game and Barry's timely double won for Boston. Lewis had singled and Scott sacrificed. Agnew then fled to Felsch. Cicotte walked. Maya and Walsh, filling the bases, and Barry delivered his double, which cleared the bases. Score: R. H. E. Boston . . . 000000000—0 4 0 Chicago . . . 0201112x—7 13 0 Batteries: Foster, Bader and Thomas; Faber and Schalk.
