78 LENA AVENUE, OTTAWA, ONT. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of "Fruit-a-tives", I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using "Fruit-a-tives", and I know now what I have not known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain. EX-CZAR COLLAPSED BEFORE RIFLE SQUAD

Had to be Propped Against Post, Says German Newspaper

Amsterdam, July 31.—Given two hours in which to prepare for the end, Nicholas Romanoff, former Russian Emperor, was taken out by his executioners in a state of such collapse that it was necessary to prop him against a post, says the Lokai Anzeiger of Berlin, which claims to have received from a high Russian personage an account of the ex-Czar's last hours. Nicholas was awakened at five o'clock on the morning of the day of his execution by a patrol of a non-commissioned officer and six men. He was told to dress and was then taken to a room where the decision of the Soviet Council was communicated to him. He was informed the execution would be carried out in two hours. The former Emperor, it is added, received the announcement of the sentence of death with great calmness. He returned to his bedroom and collapsed in a chair. After a few minutes he asked for a priest, with whom he was allowed to remain unattended. Subsequently he wrote several letters. When the escort arrived to take him to the place of execution, Nicholas attempted to rise from his chair but was not able. The priest and a soldier were obliged to help him get to his feet. The condemned man descended the stairs with difficulty and once he fell down. As he was unable to stand without support when the place of execution was reached, he was propped against a post. He raised his hands and seemed to be trying to speak, but the rifles spoke and he fell dead.

COURT MARTIAL ON THREE SOLDIERS Two Conscientious Objectors and One Sinn Feiner on Trial By Courier Leased Wire. Niagara Camp, Ont., July 31.—A general court martial was held here this morning on three men, Sherman S. Babcock, Jos. Toorish and Paul Joseph Forest. Babcock and Forest are conscientious objectors and Toorish is a Sinn Feiner, who was charged with willfully defying authorities by refusing to put on the King's uniform and having declared that he would not fight for the British who had killed his people in the Sinn Fein rebellion in Dublin in 1916. Toorish is a native of Dublin and a confessed Sinn Feiner. He is an office clerk, and had written a long statement of his views on the question of Great Britain's treatment of Ireland and the people of the south of Ireland and his reasons for refusing to don khaki in behalf of the British and other Allies. This statement he was permitted to read and it was put in as evidence in his defence. Babcock pleaded guilty to the charge of having refused to put on a uniform. "I am a child of God," he said in his defence. Paul Joseph Forest, an Austrian, who was naturalized, had refused to put on uniform and claimed that it was because of his religious belief that he would not take part in military affairs, not because of his Austrian origin.
