Halifax Letter.

DEAR ACADIAN:—Quite a ripple of excitement is noticeable among the business people of our city over the reported purchase by the C. P. R. of the D. A. Railway. While the benefits accruing to Halifax may be something problematical there is little doubt but that the western counties will profit by the change.

Increased production means an increase of traffic. The C. P. R. has a reputation for fostering the sources of supply contiguous to its lines. The 'Valley' country is a splendid farming and fruit growing territory. Minimum rates for manures and fertilizers is a wise policy for a railway to adopt. Ample rolling stock during the busy seasons is another good move. Co-operation with the producer in growing and marketing his crop will bring satisfactory results to both grower and carrier. No doubt the C. P. R. in its wide experience recognizes these factors and many others as essential to successful results. Tourist business will always bring a good revenue, but for permanent assets the farmer and fruit grower is the mainstay.

This leads up to another proposition. We are reaching out after strangers to come and till our soil, which is all very good; but while they come in at our front door many of our most desirable young men pass out the back door into Uncle Sam's domain.

Has it ever occurred to our Provincial legislators to devise a remedy, or at least inquire if there is a possible remedy? A quiet talk with some of those who go, would throw light on the matter.

Some go because they don't want to farm, but many who would like to stay in the country and acquire a farm, find they must accumulate a considerable amount of cash before they can do so, and rightly or wrongly they believe they can accomplish their ideal better or more quickly in the U. S. than here. Loan companies, so far as the writer's experience goes, expect you to have about one half paid on your property before they will pay out money which is very little help to a beginner. They are out for a gilt edge security, not particularly to help the borrower.

We have had and still have in this province a large number of idle farms which could be acquired for cash at a very low rate. Some are extra good, some are fair to middling. Our province can borrow money cheaply. Could she do better than acquire those properties or such of them as could be purchased cheaply, hold them in fee simple and say to the young man qualifying in our agricultural college: Here, son, occupy one of our farms, stock it at your own expense, improve it to your satisfaction year by year, pay interest only the first two years, and annual instalments thereafter until the purchase price is paid.

An Agricultural Bureau or Board for the purchase of farms at rock bottom rates for cash, and also for their disposal as above, would do much to stop the exodus of our ambitious young men from the farming districts and would repopulate our deserted farms; and our province, besides helping her own young men, would stand to gain a good margin on her outlay. These would our province be able to feed herself and more. Industrial and commercial enterprises are all right, but pigs are a surer profit than pig iron, beef a more marketable commodity than battle ships; these more appreciated than cannon balls. The bulls of finance often deplete our resources, but those of the agriculturist build up a standard and thoroughbred wealth.

'Daddy of the 500 acres' wants to hold on to it until the millennium is in sight, so as to be sure of a good inheritance somewhere. He thinks it would be a pity to destroy the old landmarks by slicing one or two acre plots for the boy, and he cannot understand why the boy won't wait until he is 30 or 40 years old for his share, with perhaps the prospect of mother holding the reins of government another decade.

This was to be a Halifax letter, but it seems to have gone wide of the mark. Cut off any comment, if any, and next time we will try to give you some news. PENN.

Horton Academy Closing. The closing exercises of Horton Academy take place Monday evening, May 30th, in College Hall. The speaker for the occasion will be Rev. F. J. Stackhouse, of Amherst, N. S. The registration in the Academy during the past year has been large, the senior class numbering forty. A large increase in the attendance is looked for next year. The Academy Home has been enlarged and the class rooms remodelled. With a few additions to the equipment, which are to be supplied this year, which are well stand at the head of such institutions in the Maritime Provinces.

Next year the Business Department, (which now occupies one of the best class rooms in the college building) is to be re-organized and brought up-to-date. This department is becoming more popular every year.

Canning Items.

Mr. J. W. Hennigar, superintendent of the Methodist S. School here, left on Saturday to attend the Sunday-school convention at Washington. Mr. F. M. Beckwith, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday-school, planned on going, but was prevented by business matters.

A memorial service in honor of the late King was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening last. A fine portrait of King Edward occupied a prominent position. This was draped with the British flag and black silk. Jars of white blossoms stood on either side. The entire service was most appropriate, the sermon by the pastor being a particularly fine setting forth of our lamented King's place and influence, socially, morally and politically, in the homeland and in relation to foreign nations.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, May 19th, at the home of Mr. Fred North, when his only daughter Miss Bertha North was united to Mr. Harold O'Brien, of Noel, Hants Co. Rev. Arthur Hockis performed the ceremony. After congratulations and refreshments the bridal party took the train for their future home at Noel. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien of Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Gormley, Miss Pierce and Miss Ole Roscoe of Wolfville. Mrs. William Crosby and infant child, of Yarmouth, and Mrs. McDougal and infant son are visiting at the home of their father, Mr. Nathas Loomer.

Mrs. William Sturk and Mrs. Collette are visiting in Amherst, the former her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Stanley Spicer, the latter her nephew, Barrell Cox. About thirty members of Canning Division drove to Port Williams on Monday evening and visited Lily of the Valley Division, where they spent a very enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. James Newcomb spent several days recently in Parraboro and Port Greenville.

Graduating Recital.

College Hall was well filled by a sympathetic and most appreciative audience on Tuesday evening, on the occasion of the graduating recital of Miss Myra Borden Chambers, of the pianoforte department of Acadia Seminary. Miss Chambers, who is one of Wolfville's most popular young ladies, was assisted by Miss Anita Elderkin, whose readings were much enjoyed. The program which we present below, was rendered in a most graceful and artistic manner. Miss Chambers has, evidently, all the qualifications for a very successful musician, and we predict for her a very successful career.

The Hen Nuisance.

SIR:—I read a recent letter in THE ACADIAN on the above subject with which, though a hen keeper myself, I fully agreed. Now that the garden making season is upon us, I hope that every hen keeper in the town will take serious note of what your correspondent stated, and shut up their poultry. There is nothing more annoying, not to say exasperating, than having your carefully worked garden destroyed by your neighbors' hens. People from whom you would expect better things, are often very thoughtless on this subject and fail to realize what a nuisance they have become to possibly half a dozen families. There is no excuse for such a state of things. A wire yard is easily and cheaply made, and hens can be allowed a short run just before sun down and need not suffer from confinement. I do hope those of your readers who own hens will take this matter into serious consideration. It is monstrous that people should toil and labor at a garden, and expend money upon it, only to have it torn to pieces by their neighbors' hens. Yours truly, FAIR PLAY.

Badly Hurt In Thresher

Blood poison set in—Great suffering—Cure effected by DR. A. W. CHASE'S OINTMENT. Mrs. C. Hopkins, St. George, Ont., writes:—I feel like shouting the praises of Dr. Chase's Ointment. While threshing grain, my son got badly hurt. One of the men who was pitching sheaves, missed the sheaf and ran the prongs of the fork into my son's leg. He did not take much notice of it and in a day or two it got sore and very itchy and blood poison set in. We did everything for it but would heal one place and break out at another and kept on this way for three months. Finally I thought of Dr. Chase's Ointment and in a week's time we noticed a wonderful change. By the use of three boxes he was completely cured and the wounds healed up. There has not been a sign of a spot on him since. Wherever there is itching or irritation of the skin or a sore that refuses to heal you can apply Dr. Chase's Ointment with every assurance that the results will be prompt and satisfactory. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Ed. Sissons, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy Dr. Chase's Recipes.
