PERCY BOWIN'S MOTIVE. Why the Boy Killed Mrs. Cornelia

Welch. Detroit. April 2.—The sensation of the Bowin trial to-day was the fact that Marie Hall, the woman with whom Bowin was familiar, and who he says supplied the motive for his assault on Mrs. Welch, is missing. She was here in the city, bit has now disappeared, and the police have no trace of her. While her importance in the present prosecution is but nominal, there is a strong the police have no trace of her. While her importance in the present prosecution is but nominal, there is a strong suspicion that she may be arrested, charged with complicity in the crime. The fifth confession of Bowin was read to the jury to-day. In it he gives the story of the assault as he says it occurred.

Asked by the police why he killed the old woman, the boy is alleged to have said that the only motive he had was Marie Hail. She had spent a lot of money on him from Christmas on and had been good to him. He had no great love for the girl, but she was easy with her money and give him a good time. That is why he wanted to remain with her. Marie Hail was the woman with whom Bowin went to Buffalo the day after the murder.
