Hallowe'en.

Hallowe'en was celebrated by "the boys" both on Saturday and Monday nights. Several games were found to have passed company with their hinges on Sunday morning. The damage yesterday was less evident, it sometimes happens, however, that boys are apt to carry their Hallowe'en jokes beyond the point of "joke." To anticipate this our policemen should keep in touch with their movements. Unusually tricks should be severely punished.

Dr. A. W. MacRae Ill.

Dr. A. W. MacRae, the well known St. John barrister, was taken seriously ill on Saturday and was removed to the hospital for an operation. Dr. MacRae is Grand Master of the Orange Order in New Brunswick, and word to the above effect was received by brother Orangemen here yesterday.
